

Two Births Add To Population Of City

Born: To Mr and Mrs Ernest Woods, Sunday, August 11, at The Dalles, an eight pound 7 ounce daughter, Christine Elizabeth.

Born: Saturday, August 10, to Mr and Mrs Paul Cyphers, a son, at The Dalles hospital.

W. S. Powell and daughter, Mrs Opal Parkins, went to Bend the middle of last week to stay for a week or so and do some fishing in the lakes around that town.

Mr and Mrs J. K. McKean, and Mr and Mrs Robert Marvin drove to Bend last Friday to attend the intersquad game of the Brooklyn Dodgers, professional football team that has been training at Bend.

Mrs May Barnum and her brother, Roy Kunsman, were here from The Dalles last Friday.

Mrs Roy Belshee sold her 1911 Cadillac to a group of men from Portland who are buying old cars in order to make a display of such relics of earlier years in the automobile business.

The ancient Cadillac was in good shape, having been overhauled and painted before storing in the barn on the Hennagin ranch. Tires, of course, were in as bad a condition as those on most cars.
