Certainly, Murgatroyd, it's okay for a man to have a head-on his shoulders—so long as it isn't a different head every night.

What men want is not talent, it is purpose; not the power to achieve, but the will to labor.

Rufus Grange Holds Rehearsal

Members of the Rufus Grange met at the Grange Hall Wednesday evening to rehearse the marches and drills which they are to use for the initiation rites to be given at Rufus this Thursday evening.

The Home Economics sponsored a bridal shower given in honor of Mrs. Stacey Wilson on Tuesday afternoon at the Rufus Grange Hall. Mrs. Trace Flelds had an excellent program arranged. Mrs. Harland McDonald opened the program by reading a humorous short story about a shy boy trying to summon up enough courage to ask his girl to marry him. Four Home Economics ladies portrayed a mock wedding which aroused peals of laughter from the audience. Mrs. Atlee Wilson dressed as the bride, Mrs. Glen Thompson as the groom, Mrs. George Fox as the flower girl, and Mrs. Richie Dingle as the minister. The Rufus girls Sextet sang "The Waltz You Saved For Me," and "Missouri Waltz." The bride was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Harland McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Richie Dingle, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox, Ross Guilford, Mr. and Mrs. Alee Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morris, Mrs. Elizabeth Kuypers and Bill Buck motored to Harland-View Grange Friday evening, where part of the degree work of the Grange was put on for the new candidates. There were nearly twenty-five members from Harland-View present.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard, Mr. and Mrs. William Huck, and Mrs. George Fox and sons, Jimmy and George, were callers at the Robert Byrd home Sunday afternoon to see the new baby girl, Linda Marie.

Mrs. Fay Brackett was dismissed from The Dalles Hospital Thursday where she had undergone an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Richie Dingle visited friends in Goldendale, Washington, Friday.

Mrs. Frank Adams of Arlington visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Morris, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Delos Williams and son, Dale, motored to Colfax, Washington Saturday where they visited friends over the week-end. They also visited friends at Richmond, Wash., on their way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jewel Ierria were Saturday evening guests of Mrs. Grace Medler.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Reid visited Mrs. Elizabeth Kuypers Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson spent the week-end in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kuypers and Mrs. Elizabeth Kuypers transacted business in Wasco and Moro Tuesday.

Mrs. Gordon Reid was a Tuesday afternoon caller of Mrs. James Tate.

Miss Dolores Fox was a week-end visitor at the James Fox home.

Miss Shirley Yocum and Mrs. Grant Boice spent Saturday evening in The Dalles.

Mr. James Fox spent the week-end visiting his sister and brother in law, Mr. and Mrs. Will Fehrenbacher, in Troutdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Thompson and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Van Gosbeck visited Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thompson over the week-end.

Mrs. George Fox attended the Legion Auxiliary meeting in Wasco at the home of Mrs. Louise Nisbit Monday. The auxiliary voted to send $20 to the child welfare and $5 to the cancer drive.

Mr. Benton Barnett has been ill with a cold the past week.

Rev. Ascher preacher at the Rufus Community Church Sunday.

Paul and Mark Williams were week-end visitors at the Vernon Miller home.

Ross Guilford and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morris were business shoppers in The Dalles Friday.

D. D. Williams, Dick Peck and Bill McDonald attended the tournament in The Dalles Thursday.

Mrs. Alta Smith and daughters,

Bonnie and Barlene, were shopping in The Dalles Saturday.

Mrs. Curt Tom visited her brother in The Dalles the first part of the week.

Mrs. Vernon Miller is the Red Cross chairman for the north end of Sherman County.

Leland Medler has employed Fred Merritt, who lives near the old ferry on the John Day river, to help him with his spring work.

The pussy willows are now blooming in abundance in the Rufus vicinity.
