

Field Day Planned For Stockmen Here Next June

Bob Teale, representative of the Western Livestock Journal and manager of the Midco sale, was here this week to plan for a tour of stockmen through this county next June. The group will stop at the Ted Ball ranch first then go on to Millard Eakin's and Fred Cox' before lunching at Moro. In the afternoon the party will visit the Ralph, Elton and Harold Eakin places before continuing on their tour.

Judge D. N. Mackay of Condon was here Tuesday and Wednesday to take care of judicial business for this county. He has just returned from Portland where he has been sitting for some weeks. The judge granted some birth certificates and presided over the grand jury Wednesday morning.

Mrs LeRoy Wright was taken to the hospital Monday suffering from a nervous disorder. She returned home and has remained in bed for a rest.

Mrs Glenna Hansen and daughter, Sally, of Goldendale, Wn., were here last weekend to visit with Mrs Kate Hansen and other relatives and friends.

Mrs Lucy Ruggles came home last week end from California where she had been spending most of the winter. Her son, Oscar and wife brought her back to Moro.

Clarence Huls had his household goods moved to Moro early this week and is looking for a place to live. Mrs Huls returned from a hospital in The Dalles this week, somewhat improved from asthma, but not well.
