

Fish Few and Hard To Get

Saturday the fishermen were gone from their places of business and were presumably taking in the sun along the river. No loud boasts being heard, it may be presumed that the luck was not exceptional.

Born: To Mr and Mrs W. H. Hayes, April 23 in The Dalles, an 8 1/2 pound son, David Leslie.

Roscoe Moore returned to Moro early this week after a visit in Portland.

W. H. Ragsdale was up from The Dalles Monday to see about his crops in Sherman county. He is having a well drilled on the old Jones place southwest of Grass Valley.

P. Waldo Davis reports that he will be in The Dalles Saturday to play the chimes for the Wasco county pioneers. Hershel Davis, his son, will come along to accompany his father on the piano.

Mrs E. E. Barnum entertained the members of the family Sunday at a dinner honoring Mrs Hazel Lake, who is visiting here from Portland. She is a sister of Elvin and Art Barnum and Mrs L. L. Peetz.

Mr and Mrs Paul May drove to Portland Saturday for a visit with relatives and to celebrate Mrs May's birthday. They returned to Moro late Sunday night. Daughter, Sandra, stayed with Mrs A. H. Barnum, during their absence.

Mr and Mrs LeRoy Wright left Tuesday evening for Idaho at 5:30 shortly after hearing that her mother had suffered a paralytic stroke at her home near Weiser, Idaho.

The Dalles high school glee club will appear at the Moro Community church Thursday evening, May 8, under the sponsorship of the Eastern Star lodge. This group recently won honors at the La Grande music competition and the local lodge is pleased at the opportunity of presenting it to the community. All are welcome to attend.

W. F. Jackson of The Dalles was stranded in Moro Tuesday night when his car failed.

Mrs Gladys Morrison received a pair of gaily decorated wooden shoes from Holland Wednesday, but hasn't decided to wear them so far.

Fred Misener left early this week for Hillsboro having sold his home there and needing to be present for the moving.

The Mother-Daughter banquet, sponsored by the Woman's club annually will be held May 2 at the Masonic hall at 8 p. m. A charge of 25 cents per member will be made to help defray expenses.

Mrs John Thogerson of Brush Prairie, Wn., has been here for several days helping care for her father, R. C. Byers, who remains very quiet at his home near town. Mr and Mrs Johnnie Mattson (Melba Thogerson) of Portland are coming to day to take Mrs Thogerson home.

Mr and Mrs Lester Barnum went to The Dalles hospital last Saturday where Lester received medical examination and found he had torn some muscles loose in his back. They returned home the same day.

Mrs Mae Moore and David Moore spent the week end in Portland as guests of Mr and Mrs Marion McKee.

Mr and Mrs Ernest Eslinger left last week end for a visit in Hillsboro and Forest Grove with relatives.

The cyclone that swept through northern Missouri this week missed the former home of Mrs Henry Barnum by a scant 25 miles, but Marie says that isn't very close for Missouri.

Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Dist. 15 will meet in Moro May 10 to close the books on Dist. 12. Both Post and auxiliary members will attend. The group is expected to boost the candidacy of Francis Gates of Bend for state commander.

Sheriff Fields returned from Erie, Kansas Thursday with James Barlow under indictment here for theft of a car. Mrs Barlow arrived with the car and accompanied by Mr. Barlow's father.

Miss Patty French left Friday for Portland and Eugene for a few days vacation. Mrs May Belshe and Mrs Mollie McLachlan were at Camp Sherman for an early season trip over the weekend.
