

Bride Elect Given Grass Valley Club Dinner By Employer Installs Officers For 1947-48

The Pacific Power & Light company gave a dinner party at the Moro hotel Wednesday night in honor of Miss Dorothy Barnett, who is leaving its employ the first of the month to become the bride of Olan Stark June 4. All members of the local force and Mr and Mrs Glen Corey, The Dalles were guests. Miss Barnett was presented with a gift in appreciation of her services for the past two years.

Melvin Schadewitz and son Orrin, were in the county Saturday and Sunday visiting friends and relatives.

Mr and Mrs J. C. Huntley came Monday to visit Mr and Mrs E. H. Moore for a few days and to await the arrival of Mr and Mrs Collis Moore, who returned from a six weeks tour of the nation Wednesday, having been as far east as Boston, and as far south as New Orleans.

Miss Vivian Trounce and Mr and Mrs D. A. Van Gilder accompanied Mr and Mrs G. A. Sargent to Corvallis Saturday where they attended a recital of pupils of Mrs Paul Petri at the Memorial Union building. One of the students was the Sargent's daughter, Mary Jeanette Neville.

Merle Becket went to Portland Monday afternoon to attend a conference of branch managers in the city.

Wes Glander left his work at Misener Bros. & Glander garage Saturday in time to spend a short week end at the coast.

Mr and Mrs August Jaeger from Cambridge, Idaho were here visiting Mr and Mrs Bob Belshie Tuesday.

L. Kirkelle broke his arm Friday while repairing the slide at DeMoss Springs Park, which will incapacitate him for a while.

Allan Thompson from Rupert, Idaho is here visiting his grand parents, Mr and Mrs Claude Thompson. Allan was recently discharged from the marines.

Miss Vivian Trounce announces that her recital for Moro music students has been postponed indefinitely.

Mrs Clarence Sparling returned from Portland Monday and reports Mr Sparling as getting along fine.

Perry Axtell came up from The Dalles Wednesday and says Mrs Axtell is in the hospital again.

Mr and Mrs Dean Pinkerton are here from Corvallis for the summer stay with Mr and Mrs Harry Pinkerton.

Herb Lawrence was here over the weekend from Fort Lewis, returning to his duties there Monday.

Mr and Mrs J. K. McKean went to Portland Wednesday on business and to spend a few days.

The Moro grade youngsters from grade one to four went to DeMoss for a picnic Wednesday.

Mrs Jake Douma of Wheeler and Mrs Roy Dickinson and sons from Eugene were here last week visiting relatives. An Edward's reunion was held at DeMoss which was attended by Mr and Mrs Elmer Helver from The Dalles, Bill Edwards family, Bob Belshie family, Mr and Mrs Tom Fraser and Tom Jr., Mrs Dick Redshie family, Mr and Mrs Tom Holdaway all from Moro, Mrs Clara Helver from The Dalles and Mr and Mrs Jesse Helyer from Kent.

Harold Murphy came Thursday to return his wife and son this week end to their home in Portland. Mrs Murphy and son have been visiting for the past week or ten days with her mother and family, Mrs Edna Melzer.

The Woman's community club held its last meeting Saturday afternoon at the Masonic hall. Mrs Hildred Zell of Wasco installed the following new officers: Mrs Paul Goddard, president; Mrs Millard Eakin, vice-president; Mrs Orville Ruggles, secretary-treasurer and Mrs Art Schilling, recording secretary. Mrs Zell presented each new member with a rosebud. Mrs Millard Eakin presented corsages to Mrs Zell, Mrs Earl Olds, past president and Mrs Goddard the new president. Tea and cookies were served to about seventeen present by Mrs Art Bibby and Mrs Ivan Blagg hostesses for the day.

Mr and Mrs John Rust and Mr and Mrs H. O. Duetzer motored to Portland last Tuesday returning home with a new Studebaker truck.

Mrs Arzell Lemley returned home last Thursday from Portland where she spent several weeks in the hospital for medical treatment.

Mr and Mrs Tom Coyle, their daughter, Mrs Hazel Zurlinden of Portland, Mr and Mrs Harold Eakin and family, Mr and Mrs Norris Glikson, Mr and Mrs Earl Glikson and family, Mr and Mrs Dell Olds, Slim Thompson and Marjorie McDonald motored to Bear Springs Sunday where they were met by Clara Johnson and her brother, Helen and Marjorie Hitt. Marjorie Zurlinden and Edward Woolley, all from Portland and enjoyed a picnic dinner Mrs Zurlinden returned with them to her home in Portland.

Mr and Mrs Dick Bailey and son, David, of Centralia, Wash., spent from Monday until Thursday with her parents, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

Mr and Mrs W. M. Ball of Bend spent from Thursday until Sunday with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

Mr and Mrs Ted Smith and son and Wren Hogue left last week for Chiloquin where they bought a restaurant.

Mr and Mrs Earl Olds, land after spending a week here with her parents.

Norris Glikson motored to The Dalles Sunday morning to meet his brother, Earl Glikson, and family from Reno, Nevada, who spent the week end with them.

Mrs Charles Dunlap and son, Larry, arrived Thursday by car from Lebanon and Mr Dunlap and Aaron Ingram of Lebanon arrived by plane the same day to visit his parents, Mr and Mrs A. Dunlap. Charles and Mr Ingram left Monday for Lebanon and Mrs Dunlap and son will remain several days longer.

Mrs Arch Central, Mrs Charles Dunlap and Mrs Vern Mobley and children from Kent were business visitors in The Dalles Monday.

Mr and Mrs Charlie Anderson Mrs Emma Cox, Mr and Mrs Fred Cox and son, Don, went fishing on Sherar's bridge Saturday going on to Tygh Valley for a picnic dinner.

Notice: Don't forget clean-up day Wednesday June 4, everyone out to help clean up the town. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon in the park. The committee requests the business establishments to close from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m. so every one can help.

Mrs Helen Fredricks was a dinner guest at the home of Mr and Mrs B. C. Baumgartner Monday.

Mr and Mrs Dick Bailey and son, David, of Centralia, Wash., spent from Monday until Thursday with her parents, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

Mr and Mrs W. M. Ball of Bend spent from Thursday until Sunday with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

Mr and Mrs Ted Smith and son and Wren Hogue left last week for Chiloquin where they bought a restaurant.

Mr and Mrs Earl Olds, land after spending a week here with her parents.

Norris Glikson motored to The Dalles Sunday morning to meet his brother, Earl Glikson, and family from Reno, Nevada, who spent the week end with them.

Mrs Charles Dunlap and son, Larry, arrived Thursday by car from Lebanon and Mr Dunlap and Aaron Ingram of Lebanon arrived by plane the same day to visit his parents, Mr and Mrs A. Dunlap. Charles and Mr Ingram left Monday for Lebanon and Mrs Dunlap and son will remain several days longer.

Mrs Arch Central, Mrs Charles Dunlap and Mrs Vern Mobley and children from Kent were business visitors in The Dalles Monday.

Mr and Mrs Charlie Anderson Mrs Emma Cox, Mr and Mrs Fred Cox and son, Don, went fishing on Sherar's bridge Saturday going on to Tygh Valley for a picnic dinner.

Notice: Don't forget clean-up day Wednesday June 4, everyone out to help clean up the town. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon in the park. The committee requests the business establishments to close from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m. so every one can help.

Mrs Helen Fredricks was a dinner guest at the home of Mr and Mrs B. C. Baumgartner Monday.

Mr and Mrs Dick Bailey and son, David, of Centralia, Wash., spent from Monday until Thursday with her parents, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

Mr and Mrs W. M. Ball of Bend spent from Thursday until Sunday with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

Mr and Mrs Ted Smith and son and Wren Hogue left last week for Chiloquin where they bought a restaurant.

Mr and Mrs Earl Olds, land after spending a week here with her parents.

Norris Glikson motored to The Dalles Sunday morning to meet his brother, Earl Glikson, and family from Reno, Nevada, who spent the week end with them.

Mrs Charles Dunlap and son, Larry, arrived Thursday by car from Lebanon and Mr Dunlap and Aaron Ingram of Lebanon arrived by plane the same day to visit his parents, Mr and Mrs A. Dunlap. Charles and Mr Ingram left Monday for Lebanon and Mrs Dunlap and son will remain several days longer.

Mrs Arch Central, Mrs Charles Dunlap and Mrs Vern Mobley and children from Kent were business visitors in The Dalles Monday.

Mr and Mrs Charlie Anderson Mrs Emma Cox, Mr and Mrs Fred Cox and son, Don, went fishing on Sherar's bridge Saturday going on to Tygh Valley for a picnic dinner.

Notice: Don't forget clean-up day Wednesday June 4, everyone out to help clean up the town. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon in the park. The committee requests the business establishments to close from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m. so every one can help.

Mrs Helen Fredricks was a dinner guest at the home of Mr and Mrs B. C. Baumgartner Monday.

Mr and Mrs Dick Bailey and son, David, of Centralia, Wash., spent from Monday until Thursday with her parents, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

land after spending a week here with her parents.

Norris Glikson motored to The Dalles Sunday morning to meet his brother, Earl Glikson, and family from Reno, Nevada, who spent the week end with them.

Melvin Schadewitz and son Orrin, were in the county Saturday and Sunday visiting friends and relatives.

Mr and Mrs J. C. Huntley came Monday to visit Mr and Mrs E. H. Moore for a few days and to await the arrival of Mr and Mrs Collis Moore, who returned from a six weeks tour of the nation Wednesday, having been as far east as Boston, and as far south as New Orleans.

Miss Vivian Trounce and Mr and Mrs D. A. Van Gilder accompanied Mr and Mrs G. A. Sargent to Corvallis Saturday where they attended a recital of pupils of Mrs Paul Petri at the Memorial Union building. One of the students was the Sargent's daughter, Mary Jeanette Neville.

Merle Becket went to Portland Monday afternoon to attend a conference of branch managers in the city.

Wes Glander left his work at Misener Bros. & Glander garage Saturday in time to spend a short week end at the coast.

Mr and Mrs August Jaeger from Cambridge, Idaho were here visiting Mr and Mrs Bob Belshie Tuesday.

L. Kirkelle broke his arm Friday while repairing the slide at DeMoss Springs Park, which will incapacitate him for a while.

Allan Thompson from Rupert, Idaho is here visiting his grand parents, Mr and Mrs Claude Thompson. Allan was recently discharged from the marines.

Miss Vivian Trounce announces that her recital for Moro music students has been postponed indefinitely.

Mrs Clarence Sparling returned from Portland Monday and reports Mr Sparling as getting along fine.

Perry Axtell came up from The Dalles Wednesday and says Mrs Axtell is in the hospital again.

Mr and Mrs Dean Pinkerton are here from Corvallis for the summer stay with Mr and Mrs Harry Pinkerton.

Herb Lawrence was here over the weekend from Fort Lewis, returning to his duties there Monday.

Mr and Mrs J. K. McKean went to Portland Wednesday on business and to spend a few days.

The Moro grade youngsters from grade one to four went to DeMoss for a picnic Wednesday.

Mrs Jake Douma of Wheeler and Mrs Roy Dickinson and sons from Eugene were here last week visiting relatives. An Edward's reunion was held at DeMoss which was attended by Mr and Mrs Elmer Helver from The Dalles, Bill Edwards family, Bob Belshie family, Mr and Mrs Tom Fraser and Tom Jr., Mrs Dick Redshie family, Mr and Mrs Tom Holdaway all from Moro, Mrs Clara Helver from The Dalles and Mr and Mrs Jesse Helyer from Kent.

Harold Murphy came Thursday to return his wife and son this week end to their home in Portland. Mrs Murphy and son have been visiting for the past week or ten days with her mother and family, Mrs Edna Melzer.

land after spending a week here with her parents.

Norris Glikson motored to The Dalles Sunday morning to meet his brother, Earl Glikson, and family from Reno, Nevada, who spent the week end with them.

Melvin Schadewitz and son Orrin, were in the county Saturday and Sunday visiting friends and relatives.

Mr and Mrs J. C. Huntley came Monday to visit Mr and Mrs E. H. Moore for a few days and to await the arrival of Mr and Mrs Collis Moore, who returned from a six weeks tour of the nation Wednesday, having been as far east as Boston, and as far south as New Orleans.

Miss Vivian Trounce and Mr and Mrs D. A. Van Gilder accompanied Mr and Mrs G. A. Sargent to Corvallis Saturday where they attended a recital of pupils of Mrs Paul Petri at the Memorial Union building. One of the students was the Sargent's daughter, Mary Jeanette Neville.

Merle Becket went to Portland Monday afternoon to attend a conference of branch managers in the city.

Wes Glander left his work at Misener Bros. & Glander garage Saturday in time to spend a short week end at the coast.

Mr and Mrs August Jaeger from Cambridge, Idaho were here visiting Mr and Mrs Bob Belshie Tuesday.

L. Kirkelle broke his arm Friday while repairing the slide at DeMoss Springs Park, which will incapacitate him for a while.

Allan Thompson from Rupert, Idaho is here visiting his grand parents, Mr and Mrs Claude Thompson. Allan was recently discharged from the marines.

Miss Vivian Trounce announces that her recital for Moro music students has been postponed indefinitely.

Mrs Clarence Sparling returned from Portland Monday and reports Mr Sparling as getting along fine.

Perry Axtell came up from The Dalles Wednesday and says Mrs Axtell is in the hospital again.

Mr and Mrs Dean Pinkerton are here from Corvallis for the summer stay with Mr and Mrs Harry Pinkerton.

Herb Lawrence was here over the weekend from Fort Lewis, returning to his duties there Monday.

Mr and Mrs J. K. McKean went to Portland Wednesday on business and to spend a few days.

The Moro grade youngsters from grade one to four went to DeMoss for a picnic Wednesday.

Mrs Jake Douma of Wheeler and Mrs Roy Dickinson and sons from Eugene were here last week visiting relatives. An Edward's reunion was held at DeMoss which was attended by Mr and Mrs Elmer Helver from The Dalles, Bill Edwards family, Bob Belshie family, Mr and Mrs Tom Fraser and Tom Jr., Mrs Dick Redshie family, Mr and Mrs Tom Holdaway all from Moro, Mrs Clara Helver from The Dalles and Mr and Mrs Jesse Helyer from Kent.

Harold Murphy came Thursday to return his wife and son this week end to their home in Portland. Mrs Murphy and son have been visiting for the past week or ten days with her mother and family, Mrs Edna Melzer.

Mrs Charles Dunlap and son, Larry, arrived Thursday by car from Lebanon and Mr Dunlap and Aaron Ingram of Lebanon arrived by plane the same day to visit his parents, Mr and Mrs A. Dunlap. Charles and Mr Ingram left Monday for Lebanon and Mrs Dunlap and son will remain several days longer.

Mrs Arch Central, Mrs Charles Dunlap and Mrs Vern Mobley and children from Kent were business visitors in The Dalles Monday.

Mr and Mrs Charlie Anderson Mrs Emma Cox, Mr and Mrs Fred Cox and son, Don, went fishing on Sherar's bridge Saturday going on to Tygh Valley for a picnic dinner.

Notice: Don't forget clean-up day Wednesday June 4, everyone out to help clean up the town. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon in the park. The committee requests the business establishments to close from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m. so every one can help.

Mrs Helen Fredricks was a dinner guest at the home of Mr and Mrs B. C. Baumgartner Monday.

Mr and Mrs Dick Bailey and son, David, of Centralia, Wash., spent from Monday until Thursday with her parents, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

Mr and Mrs W. M. Ball of Bend spent from Thursday until Sunday with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

Mr and Mrs Ted Smith and son and Wren Hogue left last week for Chiloquin where they bought a restaurant.

Mr and Mrs Earl Olds, land after spending a week here with her parents.

Norris Glikson motored to The Dalles Sunday morning to meet his brother, Earl Glikson, and family from Reno, Nevada, who spent the week end with them.

Mrs Charles Dunlap and son, Larry, arrived Thursday by car from Lebanon and Mr Dunlap and Aaron Ingram of Lebanon arrived by plane the same day to visit his parents, Mr and Mrs A. Dunlap. Charles and Mr Ingram left Monday for Lebanon and Mrs Dunlap and son will remain several days longer.

Mrs Arch Central, Mrs Charles Dunlap and Mrs Vern Mobley and children from Kent were business visitors in The Dalles Monday.

Mr and Mrs Charlie Anderson Mrs Emma Cox, Mr and Mrs Fred Cox and son, Don, went fishing on Sherar's bridge Saturday going on to Tygh Valley for a picnic dinner.

Notice: Don't forget clean-up day Wednesday June 4, everyone out to help clean up the town. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon in the park. The committee requests the business establishments to close from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m. so every one can help.

Mrs Helen Fredricks was a dinner guest at the home of Mr and Mrs B. C. Baumgartner Monday.

Mr and Mrs Dick Bailey and son, David, of Centralia, Wash., spent from Monday until Thursday with her parents, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

land after spending a week here with her parents.

Norris Glikson motored to The Dalles Sunday morning to meet his brother, Earl Glikson, and family from Reno, Nevada, who spent the week end with them.

Melvin Schadewitz and son Orrin, were in the county Saturday and Sunday visiting friends and relatives.

Mr and Mrs J. C. Huntley came Monday to visit Mr and Mrs E. H. Moore for a few days and to await the arrival of Mr and Mrs Collis Moore, who returned from a six weeks tour of the nation Wednesday, having been as far east as Boston, and as far south as New Orleans.

Miss Vivian Trounce and Mr and Mrs D. A. Van Gilder accompanied Mr and Mrs G. A. Sargent to Corvallis Saturday where they attended a recital of pupils of Mrs Paul Petri at the Memorial Union building. One of the students was the Sargent's daughter, Mary Jeanette Neville.

Merle Becket went to Portland Monday afternoon to attend a conference of branch managers in the city.

Wes Glander left his work at Misener Bros. & Glander garage Saturday in time to spend a short week end at the coast.

Mr and Mrs August Jaeger from Cambridge, Idaho were here visiting Mr and Mrs Bob Belshie Tuesday.

L. Kirkelle broke his arm Friday while repairing the slide at DeMoss Springs Park, which will incapacitate him for a while.

Allan Thompson from Rupert, Idaho is here visiting his grand parents, Mr and Mrs Claude Thompson. Allan was recently discharged from the marines.

Miss Vivian Trounce announces that her recital for Moro music students has been postponed indefinitely.

Mrs Clarence Sparling returned from Portland Monday and reports Mr Sparling as getting along fine.

Perry Axtell came up from The Dalles Wednesday and says Mrs Axtell is in the hospital again.

Mr and Mrs Dean Pinkerton are here from Corvallis for the summer stay with Mr and Mrs Harry Pinkerton.

Herb Lawrence was here over the weekend from Fort Lewis, returning to his duties there Monday.

Mr and Mrs J. K. McKean went to Portland Wednesday on business and to spend a few days.

The Moro grade youngsters from grade one to four went to DeMoss for a picnic Wednesday.

Mrs Jake Douma of Wheeler and Mrs Roy Dickinson and sons from Eugene were here last week visiting relatives. An Edward's reunion was held at DeMoss which was attended by Mr and Mrs Elmer Helver from The Dalles, Bill Edwards family, Bob Belshie family, Mr and Mrs Tom Fraser and Tom Jr., Mrs Dick Redshie family, Mr and Mrs Tom Holdaway all from Moro, Mrs Clara Helver from The Dalles and Mr and Mrs Jesse Helyer from Kent.

Harold Murphy came Thursday to return his wife and son this week end to their home in Portland. Mrs Murphy and son have been visiting for the past week or ten days with her mother and family, Mrs Edna Melzer.

Mrs Charles Dunlap and son, Larry, arrived Thursday by car from Lebanon and Mr Dunlap and Aaron Ingram of Lebanon arrived by plane the same day to visit his parents, Mr and Mrs A. Dunlap. Charles and Mr Ingram left Monday for Lebanon and Mrs Dunlap and son will remain several days longer.

Mrs Arch Central, Mrs Charles Dunlap and Mrs Vern Mobley and children from Kent were business visitors in The Dalles Monday.

Mr and Mrs Charlie Anderson Mrs Emma Cox, Mr and Mrs Fred Cox and son, Don, went fishing on Sherar's bridge Saturday going on to Tygh Valley for a picnic dinner.

Notice: Don't forget clean-up day Wednesday June 4, everyone out to help clean up the town. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon in the park. The committee requests the business establishments to close from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m. so every one can help.

Mrs Helen Fredricks was a dinner guest at the home of Mr and Mrs B. C. Baumgartner Monday.

Mr and Mrs Dick Bailey and son, David, of Centralia, Wash., spent from Monday until Thursday with her parents, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

Mr and Mrs W. M. Ball of Bend spent from Thursday until Sunday with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

Mr and Mrs Ted Smith and son and Wren Hogue left last week for Chiloquin where they bought a restaurant.

Mr and Mrs Earl Olds, land after spending a week here with her parents.

Norris Glikson motored to The Dalles Sunday morning to meet his brother, Earl Glikson, and family from Reno, Nevada, who spent the week end with them.

Mrs Charles Dunlap and son, Larry, arrived Thursday by car from Lebanon and Mr Dunlap and Aaron Ingram of Lebanon arrived by plane the same day to visit his parents, Mr and Mrs A. Dunlap. Charles and Mr Ingram left Monday for Lebanon and Mrs Dunlap and son will remain several days longer.

Mrs Arch Central, Mrs Charles Dunlap and Mrs Vern Mobley and children from Kent were business visitors in The Dalles Monday.

Mr and Mrs Charlie Anderson Mrs Emma Cox, Mr and Mrs Fred Cox and son, Don, went fishing on Sherar's bridge Saturday going on to Tygh Valley for a picnic dinner.

Notice: Don't forget clean-up day Wednesday June 4, everyone out to help clean up the town. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon in the park. The committee requests the business establishments to close from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m. so every one can help.

Mrs Helen Fredricks was a dinner guest at the home of Mr and Mrs B. C. Baumgartner Monday.

Mr and Mrs Dick Bailey and son, David, of Centralia, Wash., spent from Monday until Thursday with her parents, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

land after spending a week here with her parents.

Norris Glikson motored to The Dalles Sunday morning to meet his brother, Earl Glikson, and family from Reno, Nevada, who spent the week end with them.

Melvin Schadewitz and son Orrin, were in the county Saturday and Sunday visiting friends and relatives.

Mr and Mrs J. C. Huntley came Monday to visit Mr and Mrs E. H. Moore for a few days and to await the arrival of Mr and Mrs Collis Moore, who returned from a six weeks tour of the nation Wednesday, having been as far east as Boston, and as far south as New Orleans.

Miss Vivian Trounce and Mr and Mrs D. A. Van Gilder accompanied Mr and Mrs G. A. Sargent to Corvallis Saturday where they attended a recital of pupils of Mrs Paul Petri at the Memorial Union building. One of the students was the Sargent's daughter, Mary Jeanette Neville.

Merle Becket went to Portland Monday afternoon to attend a conference of branch managers in the city.

Wes Glander left his work at Misener Bros. & Glander garage Saturday in time to spend a short week end at the coast.

Mr and Mrs August Jaeger from Cambridge, Idaho were here visiting Mr and Mrs Bob Belshie Tuesday.

L. Kirkelle broke his arm Friday while repairing the slide at DeMoss Springs Park, which will incapacitate him for a while.

Allan Thompson from Rupert, Idaho is here visiting his grand parents, Mr and Mrs Claude Thompson. Allan was recently discharged from the marines.

Miss Vivian Trounce announces that her recital for Moro music students has been postponed indefinitely.

Mrs Clarence Sparling returned from Portland Monday and reports Mr Sparling as getting along fine.

Perry Axtell came up from The Dalles Wednesday and says Mrs Axtell is in the hospital again.

Mr and Mrs Dean Pinkerton are here from Corvallis for the summer stay with Mr and Mrs Harry Pinkerton.

Herb Lawrence was here over the weekend from Fort Lewis, returning to his duties there Monday.

Mr and Mrs J. K. McKean went to Portland Wednesday on business and to spend a few days.

The Moro grade youngsters from grade one to four went to DeMoss for a picnic Wednesday.

Mrs Jake Douma of Wheeler and Mrs Roy Dickinson and sons from Eugene were here last week visiting relatives. An Edward's reunion was held at DeMoss which was attended by Mr and Mrs Elmer Helver from The Dalles, Bill Edwards family, Bob Belshie family, Mr and Mrs Tom Fraser and Tom Jr., Mrs Dick Redshie family, Mr and Mrs Tom Holdaway all from Moro, Mrs Clara Helver from The Dalles and Mr and Mrs Jesse Helyer from Kent.

Harold Murphy came Thursday to return his wife and son this week end to their home in Portland. Mrs Murphy and son have been visiting for the past week or ten days with her mother and family, Mrs Edna Melzer.

Mrs Charles Dunlap and son, Larry, arrived Thursday by car from Lebanon and Mr Dunlap and Aaron Ingram of Lebanon arrived by plane the same day to visit his parents, Mr and Mrs A. Dunlap. Charles and Mr Ingram left Monday for Lebanon and Mrs Dunlap and son will remain several days longer.

Mrs Arch Central, Mrs Charles Dunlap and Mrs Vern Mobley and children from Kent were business visitors in The Dalles Monday.

Mr and Mrs Charlie Anderson Mrs Emma Cox, Mr and Mrs Fred Cox and son, Don, went fishing on Sherar's bridge Saturday going on to Tygh Valley for a picnic dinner.

Notice: Don't forget clean-up day Wednesday June 4, everyone out to help clean up the town. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon in the park. The committee requests the business establishments to close from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m. so every one can help.

Mrs Helen Fredricks was a dinner guest at the home of Mr and Mrs B. C. Baumgartner Monday.

Mr and Mrs Dick Bailey and son, David, of Centralia, Wash., spent from Monday until Thursday with her parents, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

Mr and Mrs W. M. Ball of Bend spent from Thursday until Sunday with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr and Mrs Ted Ball.

Mr and Mrs Ted Smith and son and Wren Hogue left last week for Chiloquin where they bought a restaurant.

Mr and Mrs Earl Olds, land after spending a week here with her parents.

Norris Glikson motored to The Dalles Sunday morning to meet his brother, Earl Glikson, and family from Reno, Nevada, who spent the week end with them.

Mrs Charles Dunlap and