

Gas Engstrom House Bared In Sunday Fire

Origin of undetermined origin completely destroyed the house and contents on the Gas Engstrom ranch five miles east of Grass Valley Sunday afternoon about 3:15, which was owned by Mr and Mrs Earl Olds. They were having a picnic in the park with Mr and Mrs Glenn Perry and children and Gertrude Rust and John and Barbara Allen when a call came that their house was on fire. The townspeople and neighbors rushed out but it was beyond saving and too hot to save anything in the house. There was no wind which was fortunate as more buildings would have burned, as it was the woodshed and bunk house were also destroyed. Some insurance was carried.
