

Teachers Depart; Children Released From Learning

Ray Jewel loaded his car with his personal belongings Monday night and, with his reports carefully filled and the year's business done at the schoolhouse, departed for his home in Portland. Other teachers had gone before him, Jake Ferguson and family being back in Nebraska, Norma Westly in Wisconsin and the remainder, inured to it, will stay in Sherman county for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion McKee and son, Gordon of Portland, came up Friday to spend the weekend as guests of Mrs. Mae Moore, who has her niece, Jeanette Bonney, of The Dalles here with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen McLachlan of Heppner and children were here Thursday and Friday. Their son Darrel will work this summer for Alfred Payne and Lella went Saturday to Medford to visit her aunt, Mrs. Ralph Bolen.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Price of North Bonneville left Tuesday after spending a few days visiting his nephews Elvin and Art Barnum, and niece Mrs. L. L. Peetz and attending the Sherman county picnic. Mr. Price was born in Sherman county in 1866 and has much intimate knowledge of early days in Sherman county.

Mr. and Mrs. Marie Becket and son drove to Pendleton to see the Mustangs' show Saturday returning by way of Heppner to visit relatives and friends and see some horses.

Mrs. V. B. Johnston of Salem came up last week end to visit her son, Theodore and wife for a few days.

Dean and Bill Thompson, sons of Harvey Thompson, were up Memorial day from Portland with their wives to visit relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Sayrs left last week end to spend a few days on the coast at Cannon Beach.

Donald Marth left Saturday for Rochester, Minnesota to enter the Mayo clinic in an effort to find out what has been making him feel under par.

Mrs. Stella Dillinger brought her grand daughter and Mrs. Julia Hansen up for the weekend in Sherman county.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Barnum stopped here Monday night while on their way home to Portland after a trip to the lakes fishing.

Receipts for the Ambulance Fund up to Wednesday were $236.81, according to Darwin Van-Gilder, quartermaster.

Percy Thompson returned Tuesday from Hood River where he had been visiting for a few days.

Louis Murdock and wife and his son, Louis and wife and two children, stopped in Moro briefly Saturday while on their way to Bend where Louis was to be a delegate to the Grange convention. Louis, before he married one of Ernie Tate's good looking girls was principal at Grass Valley and instructed (or tried) the youth of that town some of whom now are in the grandfather class.

Charley Goetjen and his wife, the former Tincey Ashley, were at the picnic Sunday, that event occurring while he was here on a visit from British Columbia. He recalled the time when he played ball for Grass Valley and strode to the plate in the ninth inning and drove a ball right through the Shaniko pitcher, splitting the hand of that player as he tried to stop the ball, which went on out into centerfield. Charley is a stockman and guide for hunters who come to hunt moose and deer.

Sheriff Norman Fields is getting his house painted and repaired while his wife is in a hospital in Portland where she may have a serious operation.

An oiling crew is here this week to renew the surface on a part of the Sherman highway but the threatening rain has made its progress slow. The highway north of Wasco has already been resurfaced.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Platt and son Bob and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Axtell were in Portland last week end to see the Ice Follies. Also making the trip to the city for the ice show were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Coelsch and daughter, and Gladys Morrison who met Helen Morrison there for the week end.

Floyd Lansdon, chief of the Portland bureau of Associated Press, was here Thursday afternoon while on one of his periodic visits to parts of Oregon outside the city.

Mrs. Wesley Gildner came up from Manzanita this week to be here with her husband. They have bought the house formerly occupied by Miss Vivian Trounce who is moving to Wasco soon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Schilling were here this week from their new home at Cottage Grove, to finish up their business here.

Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Graue of Madras and children were here Memorial weekend to visit with Mrs. Graue's sister, Mrs. Collis Moore and family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Snyder and sons of Albany came Saturday and remained until the following day visiting Mr. and Mrs. Darwin VanGilder.

Some dishes and other equipment was left at DeMoss Springs after the picnic Sunday. It has been brought to the office of the Sherman County Journal where owners may obtain it.

Mrs. Anna Buhman, widow of Arnold Buhman, former resident of Wasco died at her home at Hermiston this week. Graveside services will be held at the Wasco cemetery Saturday at 2 p. m. Mrs. Buhman was a sister of the late Judge Wm. Henrichs.
