

Flatts Find Boys Hungry and Happy at EOCE

Mr and Mrs Vernon Flatt spent last week end in La Grande with their son, Bill, who is attending E.O.C.E. Bill rented a cabin with a stove, in advance, with one object in view—good home cooked food—which Mrs Flatt supplied to five hungry Sherman county boys. Ray Jewel also was a dinner guest on Sunday.

Mrs Keneth Young went to Long Creek this week to attend a district meeting of the Eastern Star lodge of which she is an officer.

State Representative Ralph T. Moore and Mrs Moore of Coos Bay were week end guests of Mr and Mrs Giles French and were shown this section of the wheat country, new and interesting to lumberman Moore. Rep. Moore is chairman of the road and highway study interim committee that is charged with the job of finding out what Oregon highways should be built in the next decade.

Mr and Mrs Tommy Jones spent the week end with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr and Mrs Joe Hood, at Tygh Valley. Mrs Jones and Mrs Hood attended the dedication of the new Methodist church at Dufur Sunday.

Rebekahs will hold a food sale at Bob May & Son store Friday October 24.

Mr and Mrs Paul May are leaving Friday for Eugene to attend the wedding of Joe Goejler, a nephew of Mrs May.

Mrs L. M. Webber is here visiting her grandson, Paul May, this week, coming from Hood River.

The mobile unit will be in Moro November 7 at the school house. Hours will be from 9 to 12 a. m. and all persons are requested to come and be x-rayed to determine possible tuberculosis infection. There is no charge.

Mr and Mrs Darwin VanGilder and Mr and Mrs Vernon VanGilder left last Friday for Lookout, California to visit relatives of Mrs Vernon Van Gilders and take in the California deer hunting season.

Mrs Frances Henrichs is here this week from Marysville, California where she had been with her daughter, Maxine, who is teaching there.

Merrill Oveson is in Corvallis this week to attend a soil meeting at which trashy fallow practices will be discussed and use of stubble debated.

LeRoy Wright was in Pendleton Tuesday night and Wednesday to attend a sale of stock.

Mr and Mrs Lloyd Johnson are parents of a son born in Portland Wednesday morning at 12:30 a. m. Lloyd had gone down the day before and Mrs Johnson has been in Portland for several weeks.

Mr and Mrs J. C. Freeman and Mrs Mollie McLachlan are leaving this week end for Eugene to visit relatives for a few days. Harry Kunsman, Irving Hart, Free Crews, Tom Striker, Keck McKean were a hunting party that spent a few days in the Blue mountain cabin but had no luck seeing deer.

Mr and Mrs H. S. Bennett of Auburn, Washington were guests of their son Carrell S. and family last week end.

Fred Cox and son bought two of the Hereford heifers offered at the Mann sale near Adams Wednesday paying $1060 for the most favored one. LeRoy Wright bought calves for several beef club members at the sale also.

Mr and Mrs R. B. Hoskinson were in Portland last week end and in Corvallis Sunday night to see their son, Bob. Dewey Thompson and Louis Sather were others from Moro at Corvallis during the course of the Father's day weekend.

The city well driller was down 280 feet Thursday forenoon and was making about a foot an hour, having dropped through the hard stratum at 245 feet earlier in the week.

Councilmen are wondering how far to go unless water is found as it was originally thought that water in some quantities would be discovered before the 300 foot mark. A small amount of water seeped into the hole at around 230 feet but this is now gone.
