

Wasco Newlyweds Honored At Reception

Mr and Mrs Owen W. Barnett entertained with a reception in their home Friday evening, December 5, for their son and daughter in law, Mr and Mrs. Jerry Barnett.

Mrs Barnett, the former Miss Madelyn Dowdy of Jefferson City, Missouri, had visited with the Barnetts in January 1945 and those she met at that time were pleased to have her return.

During the evening about 70 guests came to greet the newly married couple. In the dining room was arranged a beautifully appointed table in crystal and silver centered with a bouquet of dusty rose chrysanthemums and orchid heather between the candelabras holding pink candles. Opposite the tea and coffee service was a lovely three tiered wedding cake from which the couple cut the first piece in traditional fashion. Mrs Ormand Hilderbrand of Wasco cut and served the cake and Mrs Marie Cooper of Portland poured. Both Mrs Cooper and Mrs Hilderbrand are aunts of Jerry Barnett.

Those who assisted during the evening were Mrs J. P. Brooks of Hermiston, Mrs Thomas Jacobson, Mrs Gus Hartmann, Mrs Clarence Morrison, Mrs Lee Dehler, and Mrs Kenneth Blau, all of Wasco.

Mr and Mrs Barnett returned Saturday to Kennelworth, Wash., where Mr Barnett is manager of the Vista Airport.

SHANIKO

By Mrs Maude Garrett
Word was received here of the death of Mrs Lewis Muhs, mother of George Ward. Mrs Muhs has been ill for some time and was living at McMinnville at the time of her death. The funeral was in that city Wednesday.

Miss Margaret Olson went to Madras Saturday to manage the store for her father, Ivan Olson, while he flew to southern California on business.

Church services were held at the home of Mrs Maude Garrett with Rev. Howard Schilling as minister. A special number was rendered by Miss Pat McCulloch accompanied by Miss Olson. Besides the pastor and wife and small sons, Mr and Mrs Jerry Coyle and daughter, Verna June, came up from Grass Valley.

Mr and Mrs Charles Perrigo and daughters of Grass Valley spent the day at the James Pifer home.

John Reeder spent the weekend at Walla Walla, Wn., returning Monday evening accompanied by Miss Helen Brown who is visiting at the Reeder home.

Frank Wagner was a week end visitor in Portland.

Bob Garrett left for Bend Thursday where he was helping W. E. Richardson load a car of scrap iron. He returned home Tuesday.

Mrs G. B. Harris and Mrs Minnie Bleakney drove to The Dalles Thursday on business, Mrs Bleakney remaining to visit her daughter, Mrs Ethel Schadevitz before returning Saturday evening.
