Display Ability

The fifth and sixth grade students have a display in the window of the Moro Variety & Remedy store, depicting a very black aborigine playing his drum outside a native hut. Frank Scherrer did much of the work and Joy Lane is chairman of the committee to raise money for European aid.

Wm. Henry Weatherspoon of Elgin, accompanied by W. W. Sirrine, was in Moro Thursday to make his first trip through this territory in the interest of Mr. Weatherspoon's candidacy for congress. He is opposing Lowell Stockman for the Republican nomination.

E. V. Arstall was in Pendleton Wednesday on business. A drivers license examiner will be on duty in Moro, Thurs-
