

Measles Keep Kids In; Its Spring, Too

Measles have taken several families by storm and have some members besieged in their bedrooms to await recovery. School children came down with the disease over the weekend, following similar outbreaks at Kent and Grass Valley and nearly a dozen children are out of school. Three Oveson children, Dick, Mary and Steve are down this week. Keith Thompson is recovering and others are also in bed.

Visiting from Thursday until Sunday at the Charles Adlard home and other relatives was Mrs Adlard's sister, Mrs E. S. Everett and her daughter and husband Mr and Mrs Bernard Lyman from Tacoma, Wash.

Value Bar Highlighte Practical front foundations greatly reduced. Greta, The Dalles.

Value Bar Highlighte Fred Krusow and son Stanley were up from Wasco county Saturday afternoon. Fred says he hasn't an ache or a pain anywhere and feels fine although born back in 1856.

At the Charlie Adlard home Sunday were Mr. Adlard's niece and husband Mr and Mrs Orville Hines and Mertie Wing of The Dalles. Also a brother, William Adlard of Condon who is staying a few days before returning to his home.
