

Sherman Countians Learn About Wasco County Hospital

Wily Knighten accompanied Arnold Dunlap to Tygh Valley Monday night to hear latest details about the cooperative hospital plan now being discussed across the Deschutes. It is planned to sell $200 memberships and collect $5.00 per family per month dues for those who join.

Mrs Dick Holdaway returned from the hospital this week much improved and except for periodical checks will be well again soon.

Mr and Mrs A. Kelso of Los Angeles, California, parents of Mrs A. B. Christianson, came last Thursday for a visit here with their daughter and family.

Mr and Mrs Theodore Johnston spent Sunday "Blossom day" in Hood River valley visiting with friends.

Little Gregory Marvin son of Mr and Mrs Robert Marvin, has been suffering this week with a mouth infection.

Word was received here that Wendell McLachlan of Boise, Idaho, had sustained a back injury. His mother, Mrs Mollie McLachlan left Monday morning for Boise, to be on hand to help out, even though she is still in a brace from a recent back injury.

Mrs Edith Burnet and Mrs Grace Wallan spent from Sunday until Tuesday in Walla Walla, Washington visiting relatives.

Mr and Mrs J. C. Huntley, parents of Mrs C. P. Moore, left Wednesday morning for their beach home at Arch Cape after spending some time here and at Madras visiting their daughters and families.

W. Edwin Balsiger of Moro recently purchased three purebred Aberdeen-Angus cows from John M. Rolfe of Grass Valley.

Mr and Mrs Tex Irzyk spent last Sunday in Wheeler county visiting her sister and husband and doing some early season fishing.

Verne Arstill and Ed Eaves drove to Albuquerque, New Mexico this week to see the country and do a little business.

A shower was given last Saturday at the Woman's club building on behalf of Mrs Roscoe Moore and many useful gifts were presented to her. Hostesses were Mrs Maud Lawrence, Mrs Eva Lamb, Mrs Ella Bazzel, Mrs Leta Eslinger, Mrs Grace Wallan.

Mr and Mrs Vernon Flatt and Mr and Mrs Bob Axtell and small son spent the week end in La Grande visiting Bill Flatt, a student at EOCE.

Come and hear Sam Gordon spout bridge. American Legion hall at Wasco May 27, 28, 29, at 8 p. m. $2.00 for series.

The Sherman County Rod & Gun club members expect to go down the grade Sunday and do some work throwing loose rocks out of the road and filling in with some dirt.

State Senator Carl Engdahl stopped in Moro briefly Saturday morning enroute home to Pendleton from Klamath Falls where he had been campaigning on behalf of his candidacy for delegate to the national convention.

Mr and Mrs Roy Kunsman were here Friday on business from The Dalles for Mrs May Barnum.

A marriage license was issued Tuesday in Wasco county to Mac N. Hall, 24, of Moro and Reba Alice Jackson, 21, of The Dalles.

Roy Belshee was in a hospital in The Dalles a part of this week. Max Barzee had some hard luck with his car on the fishing road last week end and it needs a new differential.

The airplane is making Kent more modern all the time. Last week sheep shearers were trimming the wool from the Bob Helyer and Jack Rucker band and were in need of sacks. Helyer in town enlisted the aid of Luther Davis and his plane and they dropped the sacks, within a few feet of where they were needed. As an extra they also dropped a few packages of frozen meat for the crew. It's hard to be isolated around Kent.

Sunshine got through the clouds again Thursday for the first time in a week and it made a coat less necessary than during the wet misty days of the first part of the week. Not a great deal of rain fell although the skies remained overcast.

All of the Wright family were ill Wednesday as the boys were having trouble getting over the
