

Bob King Brings Bride Home To Ranch

Robert K. King and Helen McEldowney of The Dalles were married June 10 at Seattle, Wn., according to an announcement made last week by the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Chambers of The Dalles. After a trip they returned to The Dalles and later to the King ranch south of Moro where they will make their home. Mrs. King has a small son John.

Many residents of Sherman county attended the wedding of Miss Muriel Jean McKean at The Dalles last Sunday. The groom, Roger Tetlow is from Astoria where the couple will live until fall when he will return to the university for his final year. Mrs. Tetlow lived in Moro when a small girl and is a sister of J. K. McKean.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold K. Needham and daughter, of Pasadena, California were here the first of the week to visit at the Harold Ginn home. Mrs. Needham was the former Faith Ginn of his city.

NOTICE: The Sherman County Fair Board will receive sealed bids for concessions at the Sherman County Fair to be held September 17-18-19, until August 1, 1948.

Alan Thompson is here to work this summer on the Russell Belshie ranch. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Thompson, now of Rupert, Idaho, and has been attending Oregon State.

Marvin Miller got a week's vacation from his railroad work and is spending it in Moro with old friends.

Miss Ethel Higgins of Berkeley, California is a house guest of Mrs. Carroll Sayers this week. In her honor Mrs. Sayers entertained Wednesday afternoon with a bridge luncheon at which many Moro women had an opportunity to meet the visitor.

A test was made on the new Wasco well Wednesday and it produced 70 gallons per minute which was not considered satisfactory by the city fathers and drilling was started again.

Mrs. L. V. Moore returned to her home Monday after spending some time in The Dalles with relatives. L. V. is reported improving slowly and is continuing his stay at the mid-Columbia hospital.

The weather cleared after the drizzling rain of Sunday and from appearance seems ready to settle down to the usual harvest dry spell. Farmers have to cut their hay but are doing it with reluctance because dry spells have been so short since April that making hay could be very difficult.

Thompsons Attend Appaloosa Show

Claud and Dewey Thompson returned from Lewiston, Idaho, Monday where they had been to attend the Appaloosa horse show given by the Appaloosa Horse association of which Claud was first president and organizer.

Of his three stallions entered in the show a two-year old took first place and an aged stallion and yearling took seconds. There was a good representation of appaloosas from all over western United States, says Claud.

RUFUS NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Medler went to The Dalles Wednesday going via Tygh Valley. They brought home a new green Chevrolet sedan when they returned.

Coming Tuesday to spend some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harland McDonald were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waldt of Portland and Mrs. Alma Fallstone of Flint Michigan. The Waldts are an uncle and aunt of Mrs. McDonald.
