

Moro People Travel and Picnic the 4th

Moro citizens spent the holiday week end in picnicking, in attending some shows nearby or in staying quietly at home. There were no local celebrations. The annual family picnic of the Roy Powell family held at the Chasles Burnet place drew the Lyle Woods from Centerille, Wn., The Balsigers, the Ronald Powells, Mr and Mrs E. H. Moore and Mr and Mrs Charley Belshee and grand daughter Beverly. Among those who went to Bend to see the water pageant were Mr and Mrs Vernon Platt and son Bill, Mr and Mrs Bob Axtell and son, Mr and Mrs Lester Conlee and Mrs Virgil Conlee and her mother, Mrs Anna Williams, Mr and Mrs Tom Douma, Mr and Mrs Max Barzee, Mr and Mrs Arthur Christianson and Diane and Bon, Mr and Mrs Bob Hoskinson and son and Priscilla Melzer, Mr and Mrs Truman Strong, Mr and Mrs Bob Boynton, Mr and Mrs Charley Powell, and Mr and Mrs Bob Brisbane. Others spent the day on the Deschutes where the first tolerable fishing of the year began and reports are that it was not too good. The Dewey Thompsons entertained the Fourth with a community picnic at their home to which was invited many of those who remained in town.

It rained again Sunday and on Monday there was a hard rain over most of the county, which didn't help haying. A drivers license examiner will be on duty in Moro Thursday July 15, 1948 at the courthouse between the hours of 10 a. m. and 3 p. m. Virgil Conlee started harvest in Sherman county last week cutting some volunteer barley which made a yield that would be creditable in any year. The Journal was in error in reporting the school election at Grass Valley. Millard Eakin was chosen school board member instead of Wallace May as reported. Mr and Mrs Tom Jones spent the holiday week end at La Grande with their son, Bud and family. Mrs Arnold Landry and daughters spent the week end holiday as guests of Mr and Mrs J. N. Landry. They were accompanied by Master Johnson who spent the time at the Ernest Woods' home. Mr and Mrs Sam Farra, and Mr and Mrs Harley Farra of Mount Vernon, Mr and Mrs John Farra of Ontario and Mrs Frankie Adlard of Condon were here Friday to attend the funeral of Art Barnum. The men are brothers and Mrs Adlard a sister of Mrs Barnum. Mr and Mrs Jasper Ward of Bend drove down Friday for the Barnum funeral bringing her mother, Mrs Echo Bartlett, a half sister of Mr. Barnum to the funeral. Mrs Hazel Lake and Mrs Leola Church, half sisters, were also here. Mrs Gladys Morrison returned from a weeks trip to Portland Tuesday bringing Mrs Julia Hansen up with her. Mrs Hansen wanted to see if reports about the excellence of the crop were correct. Mr and Mrs George Martin and Mrs Katherine Coelsch of Springfield were guests at the Stanley Coelsch farm over the Fourth. Others present for a picnic dinner were Mrs Gladys Morrison, Mrs L. V. Moore, Mrs Julia Hanseh and Mrs Florence Martin. Mr and Mrs L. L. Peetz accompanied Vernon Platt to Portland Wednesday to remain several weeks while Lou undergoes an operation for hernia. Mr and Mrs B. H. Roberson drove to Heppner Saturday and remained until Monday as guests of Mr and Mrs Merle Beckett. The men went fishing with some success. Edwin Balsiger is again at the home of his aunt, and uncle, Mr and Mrs Lyle Woods at Center ville for the summer. He returned before the stock show from a trip to Utah. Mr and Mrs Ted Barnum and Mr and Mrs Orville Barnum and families of Portland and Mr and Mrs Cleo Barnum of Bend and son were here Friday to attend the funeral of Art Barnum. Mr and Mrs John Foss accompanied Mrs Mollie McLachlan to Terrebonne for the holidays, they going to visit his brother Jim Foss and family. Mrs McLachlan went on to Redmond to visit her daughter with whom she watched the water pageant at Bend before returning. Mr and Mrs Giles French were in Bend to attend the convention of newspaper publishers and to witness the Bend festivities of the Fourth. Mrs Grace Wallan received word of the sudden death of her sister in law at Garfield Wash. Friday and left immediately to be with her brother.

Macnab-Kelly Rites Solemnized June 22

By Mrs George Fox

The candle lighted altar at St. Peters Catholic church was the scene last Tuesday morning June 22 at 9 a. m. of the wedding vows of Helen Kelly and Thomas S. Macnab of The Dalles. The Nuptial Mass was said by Rev. William Roden beside the high altar decorated with white delphinium, calla lilies and peonies. Given in marriage by George Macnab, brother of the groom, the bride wore a white suit, brown silk blouse and a halo-hat with green accessories, and carried a white prayer book, and wore a corsage of yellow orchids. Maid of honor who was the only attendant was Mrs Russell McCullough (Roseanna Macnab) who wore a pink suit with white accessories and had a lavender corsage. Robert Macnab, attended his brother as best man. Ushers were Patrick and George Macnab. Altar boys were Jimmie Macnab, and Dennis and Thomas Burke. During the ceremony and Mass Mrs Kathleen Nelson sang, Ava Maria and Pavis Angelicus, accompanied by Mrs George Borgeson who also played the wedding march and incidental music. After the ceremony the couple received informally in the vestibule of the church then the bridal party, parents and Father Roden enjoyed a wedding breakfast at The Hotel Dalles. A reception for relatives was held at two p. m. at the home of Mr and Mrs Alex Macnab. The long serving table was covered with a lace tablecloth, and had a centerpiece of lovely white delphiniums and peonies with white candles in crystal holders. The cake was first cut by the bride couple then served by Mrs John Macnab. At the punch bowl was Mrs M. E. Otos, sister of the bride. Assisting around the rooms were Mrs F. W. Macnab, Mrs Donald Macnab, Mrs Peter Macnab and Mrs E. W. McMillan. Mrs Kelly chose a dark flowered crepe dress with navy accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs Macnab chose a black flowered crepe dress with white accessories and both ladies wore corsages of gardenias and pink rosebuds. The bride formerly of Willwar Minnesota is employed by the P. E. Curtis Accounting Office and the groom is employed by the Mid-Columbia Supply and Equipment company. Dr. John Macnab took pictures of the reception which added to the enjoyment of the occasion. Out of town guests for the wedding were Mr and Mrs Chet Coats, Mrs Claude Coats, Mr and Mrs F. W. Macnab, Mr and Donald Macnab, Mr and Mrs L. C. Medler, Frank Medler, all of Rufus, and Mrs E. W. McMillan and sons, the Misses Rosemary and Dolores Leehan of Portland, and Mr and Mrs Peter Macnab of Wasco. During the afternoon the young couple left for about a weeks trip to the coast after which they will be at home in The Dalles.
