

Leonard Ireland Visits Moro

C. Leonard Ireland, former publisher of the Sherman County Observer, one of the papers consolidated to make the Sherman County Journal, was here Monday. He now lives at Molalla and was visiting a nephew at Hood River when he made his trip to visit old friends at Moro. He was publisher, either alone or with his father, from 1894 to 1931.

Wily Knighten and daughter, Anajeau, drove to LaGrande last Friday to bring Mrs. Knighten home from summer school and Sunday Anajeau left for Eugene to start the second session of summer school there.

Messrs. and Mesdames Dell Olds, Darwin Van Gilder, Collis Moore and Giles French were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Huhman at Sandy last Saturday and Sunday while gathering some gallons of wild blackberries and innumerable scratches and abrasions.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. George DeMoss Thursday morning in The Dalles, a daughter.

Richard Meyers, son of Mrs. Lee Belshee, is here from Salem to visit his mother for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Raasch of Tacoma, Wn., were here last week to visit his sister, Mrs. Truman Strong. Mrs. Strong's mother came with them to spend a part of the summer.

Rebekahs of the Moro lodge, not wishing to stop meetings during harvest have started meetings on Tuesday afternoons instead of at night. First such meeting was held this week. This gives the women a chance to meet when they are not so busy as at night when harvesters must be fed about time lodge usually convenes.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ross have received from their daughter, Mrs. Jack Matson in Washington D. C. an envelope containing much material about the funeral of General Pershing. Mrs. Matson was able to attend.

NOTICE

Anyone wanting to move com bines, derricks, or other high equipment or machinery under wires of the Pacific Power & Light company can obtain the aid of men from the company by a simple request. There is danger in handling wires.
