Miss Agnes Strietzel is visiting Lu Brown here this week from California.

Mr and Mrs O. A. Ekstrom and daughter stopped in Moro

Friday while on their way home from a trip to Detroit, Mich., to pick up a new car and then on to tour the New England states. They had been gone nearly two months.

Mr and Mrs Lowell Thompson are here to get located if possible and start work on the county road crew. They came from Arizona.

Mr and Mrs Collis Moore and son David and his mother, Mrs E. H. Moore left Thursday for a trip to Canada on which they will do some sight seeing and fishing.

Miss Margaret Donahue is here to care for Leon Moore since Dr and Mrs W. N. Morse have returned to their home in The Dalles.

Mr and Mrs Mack Bull took their grandson Tommy to Condon Wednesday afternoon expecting to remain until Sunday to visit with their son, Hollis and family.

Mr and Mrs Claud Thompson came back to Moro the first of the week to stay with his father, Andrew Thompson, during the absence of Mrs Edna Melzer. Claud and wife have been visiting their daughters this summer, and stopped briefly at Willamina where his son, Orval and wife have just bought the Willamina Times.

James B. Adams was in town Wednesday from Portland to see about some business for the Eastern Oregon Land company. He says that he makes the trip in one day now.

Mr and Mrs John DeMoss decided to take a few days off and see some new country before buckling down to hard work again.

The Sherman County Pomona grange will meet Saturday, September 4 at Rufus for its meeting of the third quarter.

Mr and Mrs Jack Lawrence returned home this week from their trip to North Dakota. Herbie Lawrence, just out of the army, came earlier, anxious to get in some harvesting.

Brown-Winnett Nuptials Hela

At a candlelight ceremony performed at St. Peter's Catholic church in The Dalles, August 15, Miss Eilene Winnett, daughter of Mr and Mrs L. E. Winnett of Wasco, became the bride of Robert Brown, son of Mr and Mrs R. J. Brown of The Dalles. Rev. William L. Roden read the nuptial mass.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a slipper satin Empire style wedding gown. Her finger-tip length veil was edged with lace and was held with a crown of seed pearl stephanotis blossoms. Her wedding bouquet was of Ophelia roses, centered with an orchid, with white satin ribbon streamers tied with stephanotis. Her only ornament was a string of pearls, which were a gift of the groom. Her something blue were garters, and her something borrowed and something old was a beautiful white linen handkerchief belonging to her grandmother.

Mrs William Powell was her sister's matron of honor and she wore a floor-length gown of orchid net with an orchid velvet sash. Her headpiece and mitts were of matching orchid net and she carried a bouquet of cream colored gladioli.

Mrs Loren Winnett Mrs Luther Goin, Miss Patricia Eddins and Miss Lucille Nordquist were the bridesmaids.

Their dresses were identical with the matron of honor, Mrs Winnett and Mrs Goin's being in yellow and Miss Eddins and Miss Nordquist in pale green. Each carried a bouquet of orchid gladioli.

John Clearwater acted as best man for Mr. Brown and the ushers were Ted Van Buren, Henry Loy and Dick Maier.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs Winnett wore a gray crepe dress with black hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. Mrs Brown's dress was of navy blue, and her hat was navy blue and she had pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses, also.

The reception was held in the Gold room of the Hotel Dalles. The four tiered wedding cake was placed on the center of the large serving table, and was topped with the traditional bride and groom figurines which were embowered with a spray of orange blossoms, and was encircled with fern, rosebuds and stephanotis. Large crystal bowls of daisies and pink carnations were placed on either side of the cake, also crystal candelabra with white tapers.

Mrs Ira Winnett, grandmother of the bride, and Mrs Harold Eddins poured and Mrs Blanche Nichols served the cake. Mrs F. A. Perkins and Mrs Paul Clearwater assisted about the room and Miss Patricia Kaseberg was in charge of the guest book.

For her going away, Mrs Brown wore a navy blue suit, gray and blue hat and gray accessories. The orchid from her wedding bouquet was her corsage.

Mr and Mrs Brown will make their home in Eugene after the first of September, where he will enter his junior year at the University of Oregon.

Mrs Myrtle McLennan and The Dalles Thursday to attend Miss Minnie Bleakney went to the funeral of James Robertson

Why most telephone trouble stops before it starts

1. Imagine a vacuum cleaner in a central office... actually it's one of our important tools. For keeping equipment working perfectly means keeping equipment perfectly clean. The vacuum sucks up the specks of dust that might make a tiny electrical contact fail... just when you need it. And we stop trouble other ways, too.

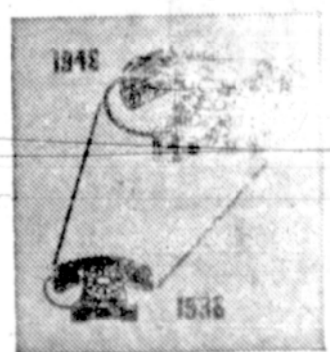

2. While you sleep this new electronic tester is at work... combing over circuits to see if it can spot a "leak" in the office or out on the lines. For even the best-insulated cables now and then allow moisture from rain or fog to creep in. By recording current loss on the lines, the tester checks loss of efficiency that might mean future trouble.

3. "Trouble detectives" are at work constantly, inspecting cables and lines and following up the clues given them by this testing equipment. These are just a few examples of our preventive maintenance... part of our job of making your telephone service dependable, ready to go to work for you when you need it... as often as you need it.

4. When you make a telephone call you hire a mighty valuable servant. And that servant is more useful than ever before. For the number of telephones on the Coast has almost doubled in the past ten years. We're hard at it to provide more and better service for more people. And each new telephone added makes your telephone that much more valuable.

7A Model weighs approximately 1200 pounds. Works better under difficult conditions than lighter machines.

Every machine can be assembled as a right hand or left hand drive machine. Very strong, heavy goosenecks.

The transport, weighing nearly three hundred pounds is the right distance behind the revolving rod. Tiller wheel assemblies work perfectly and last longer.

The straight chain drive on Cheney Weeders is not excelled by any other kind of drive. There is plenty of clearance for stubble and weeds.

For nearly forty years Cheney Weeders have satisfied farmers who want the best. Cheney's are strong, convenient and dependable.

R. H. McKean & Son of Wasco, Oregon have been distributors of Cheney Weeder products ever since these valuable implements were first invented. The Cheney Weeder Company also builds the Cheney SOIL SAVER plow which is recognized as a very successful tillage machine to work the ground properly and to hold it in place.

McKean & Son carry a good stock of Cheney's products and can supply you immediately with these well built and profitable implements. See them at
