

County Court Meets Sept. 1

The county court met Wednesday and paid the small amount of bills that were in by that early date, listening to a few requests for gravel and transferred funds to make possible payment of general fund claims.

Emil Yuni, who one time was compositor and printer for the Observer, stopped here Wednesday while on his vacation trip. He is now assistant foreman in the plant of the Aberdeen World.

Mrs Verne Arstill and daughters left last Friday for a visit with her mother in Los Angeles. Mrs Tom Saxton accompanied Mrs Arstill to California.

Mrs Clarence Mersinger came home last Friday from Montana where she had been for a month caring for her daughter, Mrs Charles Green, who has been ill. She is much improved but not very strong yet, reports her mother. Clara Mersinger, who suffered a broken back while on an auto trip this month, is to remain in a Sheridan, Wyoming hospital until the cast can be removed. She will not be crippled, her mother says.

Mr and Mrs Ernest Woods finished harvest in time Saturday to attend the football game that night in Portland. Verne Arstill was another from Moro who saw the game and pronounced it good.

Lt. and Mrs N. W. Frees Jr. and children left Monday for San Diego, California after spending Sunday night here with her parents, Mr and Mrs Giles French.

Mrs Lena Searcy left Thursday morning after spending a week here visiting her daughter, Mrs Harry Pinkerton and friends. She was just returning from a trip to Spokane to see her son, Serat.

Mr and Mrs C. A. Ruggles and daughter, Connie of Heppner and Mr and Mrs John Searcy and son Jack were all in the county Sunday looking after business and finding some time to do a little visiting.

George Milmaugh, director of the savings bond campaigns in Oregon since the death of Kenneth Martin last month, was in Moro Tuesday morning while on a trip through eastern Oregon.

Mrs Bonnie Peters Sharp drove to Crater and Diamond lakes last weekend, taking her sister, Mrs Lloyd Belshe from Redmond with her.

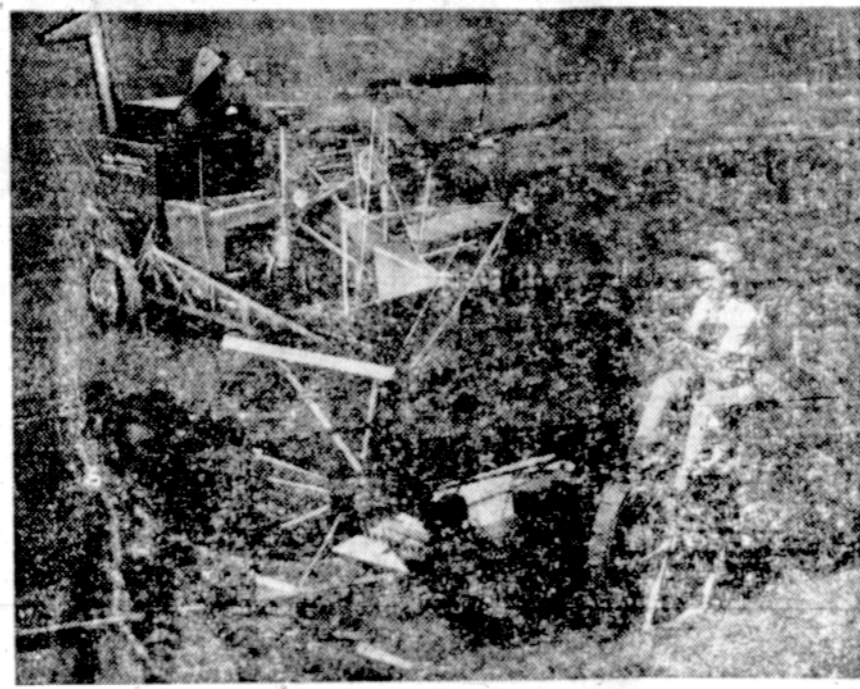

L. F. Galvin of Centralia, Wash., was here the first of the week to pay an overnight call on Tom Fraser. Mr Galvin one time showed Percheron horses at northwest fairs.

Mrs Willy Knighten returned from La Grande where she had been to attend a special training course for elementary teachers and Miss Anajean Knighten came home from Eugene and six weeks of summer school last Saturday.

Glen McLachlan and wife were in Moro for breakfast Tuesday morning while on their way to Medford from Heppner with a load of furniture. Vernon Flatt was at Coulee dam last week on a similar trip and Bob Flatt drove a truck to Spokane Tuesday night with a load of household goods.

Pomona Grange at Rufus has been postponed until September 25.

Unsolved Reaper Mystery

—Reaper, courtesy Edison Institute, Dearborn, Michigan
This 74-year-old Triumph reaper was found recently in a New York state barn in its original shipping crate. It had never been used. Efforts to learn why it was left unpacked for almost three-quarters of a century have so far uncovered no clues. This reaper shown above in comparison with a present day combine was exhibited at the Ford Tractor and Dearborn implement press demonstration held at Deer Lake Hills Farm, Clarkston, Michigan, by Dearborn Motors Corp., Detroit.

Jess Landry was taken to the Mid-Columbia hospital in The Dalles Saturday with a recurrence of his former ailment. He is reported to be resting well under a doctor's care.

Mr and Mrs Elmer Metteer of Portland are here to visit with their daughters and families, Mrs Kenneth Zachary and Mrs John Shipley.

Mr and Mrs Harvey Thompson and children are on their annual vacation at the beach these days.

Mr and Mrs Darrel Belshe and son Lonnie, were here Wednesday to see about some business matters.

Ed Vanett of Hood River is here to visit with the Knighten family.

Mr and Mrs Robert Gillmor and children are taking their vacation in Sherman county this week and are visiting with his parents, Mr and Mrs Clyde Gillmor and her mother, Mrs Clarence Morrison at Klondike.

OLD TIMER VISITS

W. E. Lee, of Donald, Alberta, is in town this week to see if Moro looks like it did 50 years ago when he was a young lawyer in the office of R. E. Hoskinson and fresh from Iowa.

Mr. Lee, now 76, states that he left Moro after a couple of months to join the Second Oregon regiment and that he served in the Philippines until the end of the Spanish-American war. He came to Portland for the August 15 reunion of that group of men.

He did not return to Moro after his return because he was ill and he also dropped the practice of law and moved to Canada. He is visiting at the R. B. Hoskinson home.

LATE BIRD... In June, 1939, William S. Wellman of Cleveland waved good by to his homing pigeon, A.U. 567, which had taken off in a pigeon race. And good by it was, for the bird didn't show up again until a few weeks ago--nine years after the race.

TEACHERS IN SHORT SUPPLY

Teachers at Wasco where school will open Tuesday will be James Riskowsky, principal, Robert Duke and a woman teacher in high school; Mrs Edith Hunt, first and second; Mrs Myrna Krause, third and fourth;

Paul Boswell, seventh and eighth. No teacher had been hired so far for the fifth and sixth.

R. O. English and J. F. Pick were here Wednesday to try to encourage cities of the county to send their fire chief to Klamath Falls for a six day school in fire methods, the expense of which is being paid by the state. The school will be held in October and cities may possibly send one man and have him teach others.

YOUR ROAD Are you on it or in it? CRUSHED ROCK

Our crusher will be operating near DeMoss Springs about September 15 and we will have several sizes of crushed rock to sell.

LOFTS & SON

All we keep is the finest quality paint that's Fullers. This is a good time to paint, too. Not much wind, warm drying sun, and it'll make the winter brighter, too.

Whether it's inside or outside we can supply you with finest quality paint for it. And if it's the barn or machine shed we've got paint to make it look like a cow cathedral for sure.

Come in and talk about it, we might both get some good ideas.

THE TAVERN

Ken Zachary

7A Model weighs approximately 1200 pounds. Works better under difficult conditions than lighter machines.

Every machine can be assembled as a right hand or left hand drive machine. Very strong, heavy goosenecks.

The transport, weighing nearly three hundred pounds is the right distance behind the revolving rod. Tiller wheel assemblies work perfectly and last longer.

The straight chain drive on Cheney Weeders is not excelled by any other kind of drive. There is plenty of clearance for stubble and weeds.

For nearly forty years Cheney Weeders have satisfied farmers who want the best. Cheney's are strong, convenient and dependable.

R. H. McKean & Son of Wasco, Oregon have been distributors of Cheney Weeder products ever since these valuable implements were first invented. The Cheney Weeder Company also builds the Cheney SOIL SAVER plow which is recognized as a very successful tillage machine to work the ground properly and to hold it in place.

McKean & Son carry a good stock of Cheney's products and can supply you immediately with these well built and profitable implements. See them at

In this growing region...

Every Kilowatt Counts

Be thrifty in the use of your electric range. It will save money on food, and make the range last longer. Your thrift will also help save kilowatts needed to supply the huge demand for electricity in this growing region. Peak power requirements of the Pacific Northwest have increased 1,448,000 kilowatts, or 57% since the end of the war, due to enormous growth in industry and population. Every kilowatt has a big job to do. So use electricity wisely. Follow the tips listed below. Save time and money for yourself. Save electricity for a fast-growing Pacific Northwest.

HOW TO SAVE...

Save vitamins in vegetables by steaming them in a half-cup of water instead of boiling.

Tightly covered pans keep minerals and vitamins in the food, prevent waste from boiling or steaming.

Cut food bills by cooking complete meals, including desserts, in the oven.
