

MORO NEWS

Foster Martin, former assistant at the local experiment station and for some years a research man at Pendleton, was here Wednesday on station business. Martin has just returned from Korea where he was an observer of agricultural practices attached to the army for the past two years.

Asa Eslinger, who visited here with his son Ernest and family for a week or so this fall, returned to his home at Forest Grove last week.

Harry Kunsman and Free Crews left early Wednesday morning for the Blue mountains where they are searching for elk.

The old Foss Garage is being remodeled somewhat to make it conform more closely with the needs of the local highway crew. New gas and fuel tanks are being put in and a general clean-up being made.

Collis Moore returned Tuesday night from a hunting trip to Pendleton.

Darwin Van Gilder had the misfortune of stepping on a rusty nail Monday while working at the newly acquired state garage, which necessitated a trip to the hospital and a few days day-off from the state highway work.

Mr and Mrs John Foss went to The Dalles Monday to attend the funerals of John McDermid and W. F. Jackson.

The Civil Service commission announces that an examination for substitute clerk for the Moro postoffice will be held November 20 at 8:30 a. m. at The Dalles. Applicants must be between the ages of 18 and 50 and must reside within the delivery zone. Miss Thelma Morgan, daughter of Mr and Mrs R. T. Morgan of Moro was married Wednesday, October 27, at Goldendale, Wn., to Joe Dimmick of McMinnville. Her brother Ariel of Arlington and wife accompanied the newly weds to be married.

Mr and Mrs Harold Ginn are home again after a trip around Nevada to Carlsbad caverns in New Mexico. Mr and Mrs Guy Weedman of Portland made the trip with them.

Ray Blake, with his son in law, Scott Fortner, with some friends were here to the second day of the bird hunting but found the birds pretty well scared of guns and men by that time.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness, sympathy and floral offerings during our recent bereavement. Mrs Mai McDermid, Mrs Kenneth Blau, Malcolm McDermid, Donald McDermid.

CARD OF THANKS
I want to express my thanks to the voters of Sherman county for their expression of confidence given me at the Tuesday election. C. A. Tom.

I take this means of saying "Thank you" to the voters who supported me at the November 2 election. T. Lester Johnson
