

Moro Principal Wrecks Car At Grass Valley

Principal Kenneth Young and Carl Schilling were at Grass Valley helping arrange for the carnival last Friday when Young drove his car into the cow-catcher of the train. The car was dragged some six feet being considerably damaged in the process. Carl got a mark above his eye and Young a small wound in his forehead.

Giles French was in Salem Saturday and Sunday on legislative matters. Mrs. George Mitchell is in Pendleton to be with her daughter after the birth of the Mitchell's first grand daughter, Andrea Jane Hyder, December 3. George is batching and feeling very proud. Interior of the Masonic hall received a new coat of kalsomine last week already for the winter meeting season.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Douma drove to Bend Sunday bringing Mrs. Nellie Meade home with them. She is now visiting here with her grandmother, Mrs. Ida Davis and aunt, Mrs. Douma. Sheriff Norman Fields was in Richland, Washington Tuesday to testify in a car theft case in a federal court. Ralph Brisbane was taken to the hospital last weekend and was very ill for several days the first of the week with doubt held for his recovery. He has improved since then.

LeRoy Wright and Bill Hall are in Corvallis this week to attend the annual conference of county agents and extension workers and experiment station officials.

Mrs. Howard Conlee was in Salem, Monday, December 13, as a member of the electoral college for Oregon, she having been chosen one of six such electors at the last general election when the people of Oregon voted for Thomas E. Dewey as their presidential choice. The Oregon electors voted officially for Dewey and Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leinkamp of Maupin were in Moro briefly Wednesday evening. He is superintendent of schools at Maupin and was formerly at Reedsport.

Mr. and Mrs. Darold (Bud) Beishe and son were here Thursday from Hood River. Work has been delayed on the city's new pipe line because of difficulty in getting the ditch

THE NAVY REMEMBERS . . . In a colorful ceremony undimmed by driving rain the navy remembers its own fighting men who died at sea and the men of all the United Nations who were lost at sea. Chaplains of three major faiths, Catholic, Protestant and Jewish, throw overboard a floral tribute to America's dead. Later, children of U. N. delegates tossed over a floral remembrance to all the men of the United Nations who died at sea.
