From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

We Both Won This One

Blew my top the other morning when I discovered a shirt I'd put on had two buttons missing.

"Joe," the missus says, "do you ever read what you write? For a man who writes newspaper pieces all about tolerance, you sometimes show a lot of race prejudice."

"Race prejudice!" I holler. "No one can accuse me of that." "I mean prejudice against the entire human race," she interrupts with a smile. "Why get mad at the world over two little buttons? That took the wind out of me."

From where I sit (as I told the missus that evening), a lot of us sometimes get too worked up over little things... little differences of opinion or taste. One person prefers beer or ale, another prefers cider or lemonade. But why criticize the other fellow just because his tastes aren't the same as ours? "That sounds more like you, Joe," she laughs, snipping off a thread. (It so happens she was sewing on buttons.)

Time to Save Electricity!

4:30 to 6:30 every workday evening!

The whole Pacific Northwest faces a breakdown in electric service unless you... and you... and you... help save electricity. The situation will be serious everywhere in this fast-growing region until big new power plants can be finished. The problem is especially bad on these early winter evenings when lights go on everywhere while stores and factories are still operating. All power systems are strained to capacity from 4:30 to 6:30 workday evenings. Please save electricity during these hours, every way you can.
