

Sherman County People Leaving For Europe

W. S. Powell and his daughter, Mrs. Opal Parkins will leave Moro, May 15 for Portland and San Francisco where they will board the President Polk for a trip around the world. They will sail west and return to New York the entire trip taking about three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Powell, Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Griffith and Judge and Mrs. Fred Wilson will leave May 9 for New York to take ship for a visit to continental Europe. They expect to return sometime in July.

Mr. and Mrs. John DeMoss, after attending the Old Pioneers picnic in The Dalles Saturday will drive on to Washougal, Wn., to be with Mrs. DeMoss's mother, Mrs. Nancy Dugger Beard, who was 93 New Year's Day, for Mothers' Day.

Monday they expect to attend the I.O.O.F. district meeting in Mayville, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Vince Carter and daughter of Culver spent Sunday here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Darwin VanGilder. The Carter's eldest daughter is attending school in Moro and staying with the VanGilders.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Kayse and two children are living in the Ruggles house while he is working on the State highway crew. They came from Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Johnson of Salem and Mrs. Alata Wiley of Portland were here last weekend on their way home after a trip to Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Carrell Says were hosts Saturday night at a dinner party in honor of their son, Frank, whose birthday was celebrated. Other guests were the Says' daughter, Mrs. Chester Coats and husband of Wasco, Miss Harriet Whalley of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Reid of Rufus.

The Sherman County Riders will meet at the county fair grounds at 2 p. m. May 15 for a meeting and some practice.

James Reed moved his family to The Dalles Monday but he is still working for the Sherman County Journal.

D. L. Belshe was here from Hood River Tuesday looking after his farming interests here.

Bob Hoskinson and Alan Pinkerton were up from Corvallis Saturday night to dance with old school friends at the Senior ball which was held at the school gymnasium.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Miller are parents of a daughter, born Friday, April 29 at The Dalles.

Howard L. Billings, field director for the Oregon Education association, was here Wednesday to visit the school superintendent's office and was introduced at the Sherman County club luncheon.

Miss Donna Sparling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sparling, now attending Gresham high school won second place for straight news writing at the Pacific university competition, conducted under Professor Clifford P. Rowe. Donna was also chosen as personality of the week by the students of her school and her life's recounted in the Gresham "Hi-Argus".

Mrs. Dar Shaw and daughter were here Wednesday visiting Mrs. Ralph Busse. She is remembered here as Joyce Fields.

Mrs. Bob May came home Monday from Olympia, Wash., where she had been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Canning, who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary May 1.

Mrs. John Lamb's mother, Mrs. Mary Burcham left for Los Angeles Saturday after visiting here.

E. E. Barnum went to the hospital Wednesday for a check-up and found his foot getting better but not very fast.

Fred Wiseman, Moro High school sophomore, who came here from Klamath Falls, was injured Wednesday afternoon when the pole with which he was vaulting broke and one end pierced his leg. He was taken to the hospital where he remained for a day. He is expected to recover soon.

The Missionary society meeting held Wednesday at the Amidon farm home was attended by 35 members who listened to the program about home life and the mother's place therein.

Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Balsiger had as guests over the weekend Mr. and Mrs. Dick Richards from Portland.

Amateurs To Mix Friday Night

Spectators at the grade school smoker to be held in the Moro gym Friday evening, May 6, will again be treated to over twenty action-packed bouts of boxing and wrestling. This will be the last event of the kind on which the boys will appear in Moro this school year.

Four previous programs have netted the boys enough money to buy a full set of basketball uniforms including warm-up jackets, a baseball cap and sweat shirt for each boy in school. Any additional money will be used to purchase special physical education equipment.

Boys from the group who belong to the Cub Scouts will perform in one of the side shows at the Cub Circus in The Dalles on May 21. Some special features have been planned.

Funeral Rites Held For Pvt. Huck

Rites were held from the C. R. Callaway & Son chapel at 2 p. m. Saturday for Pvt. Robert Huck, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Huck, Rufus, who was killed while in military service in Belgium on February 1, 1945.

Pvt. Huck was born April 21, 1924 in Gilliam county. He was valedictorian of the 1942 graduating class at Rufus high school and was well known for his work in 4-H club livestock projects under the direction of Cal Monroe, former Gilliam County Agent and John Jenkins, school principal.

Here for the services Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cooper of Tuskegee, Alabama, who made trip by plane. Cooper was the sergeant in the platoon to which Pvt. Huck was assigned in Co. 1, 358th Infantry, 90 division, third army.

Honorary pallbearers were Willard Left, Andrew Cooper, Donald Bryant, James Fox, John Jenkins and Carl Thompson. The active pallbearers were selected from members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and who also had charge of the graveside services.

Moro Huskies Have Winning Streak

The Moro high baseball team won from Condon last Friday at Grass Valley by the lopsided score of 19-1. Dick Rust, Moro's left hander, had the game under control at all times, allowing only 5 hits and striking out 10 men.

Keith Nelson provided the hitting thrill of the day with a four run home run in the 6th inning after Thompson had connected for a 3 run triple in the second inning.

	Runs	Hits	Errors
Condon	1	5	8
Moro	19	10	1

Batteries: Moro, Rust and Harvey; Condon, Conboy, McLaughlin and E. Herbert.

The Moro Huskies stretched their winning streak to 5 games last Tuesday with a 24-1 win over Maupin at Maupin. The game was never in doubt as Moro put 17 hits and 12 Maupin errors together to score with ease.

Fred vonBorstel worked the first four innings on the mound for Moro and allowed no runs. Nelson and Clarence May finished up allowing 2 hits and 1 run between them.

Scott Fritts, who had a perfect day at the plate with 3 hits in 3 times up and Roy Harvey, who pounded out two triples, led the hitting parade.

	Runs	Hits	Errors
Moro	24	17	2
Maupin	1	5	12

Batteries: Moro, von Borstel, Nelson C. May and Harvey; Maupin, Richmond, Woodside and Bare.

HUMAN GROWTH FILM TO BE SHOWN P.T. A. FRIDAY EVENING, MAY 12

A showing of the film Human Growth has been booked for the South Sherman County Parent-Teachers' association on Friday evening, May 13, at 8 o'clock at the Moro school auditorium.

Mr. Curtis E. Avery, director of the E. C. Brown Trust, will present and explain the purpose of the film. The Oregon Council of Parents and Teachers has given its wholehearted endorsement to this new approach to sex education. The parents in Sherman county are urged to take advantage of the opportunity to see the film themselves and to decide whether they want their children to see it in the schools.

There will be a short business meeting and social period after the picture has been shown.

Comedies in another room will keep the children entertained throughout the evening.
