

First Oldtimer Comes for Picnic

Mr and Mrs Jay Price of North Bonneville, Wash., were her over the weekend coming to attend the Historical society picnic Sunday. Mr. Price presented the society with a painting of the Sand Springs buildings made in the early seventies, together with photographs of his family, the second family to settle in Sherman county.

Dean Wilcox is here again for a Sherman county summer on the farm. A drivers license examiner will be on duty in Moro, June 16, at the courthouse between the hours of 10 a. m. and 3 p. m. Lawrence Kirby moved his household furniture to Moro this week and is now occupying the house he recently bought from Lou Hayes. Three of the Kirby children are living here and the eldest son will be married here Sunday. Rev. and Mrs W. W. Gearhart returned home late Saturday

CLIPS YANKEES . . . It was "Yankee Clipper" Joe DiMaggio, who lived up to the title, when he drew down on the Yankee ball club management for a reported salary of $90,000.

Mr and Mrs Gorman Rose took a weeks vacation this week, school being ended. They went to the coast. Several horsemen and women of this county were at Redmond Sunday to attend the horse show and riding events held by that club.

Guests at the home of Mr and Mrs Chas. Adlard over the Memorial week end were Mr and Mrs Carl Seiferts and sons Carl and Donald; Mr and Mrs Rolla Everett and daughter, Carolyn, all of Tacoma, Wash. Mrs Seiferts and Mr. Everett are niece and nephew of Mrs Adlard and Mrs Mac Bull. The Ted Elliott family came up Sunday from The Dalles also for a family dinner. Mrs Bert Lite of Portland is here to help take care of her mother, Mrs Jack Lawrence, who is still very ill in the Mid-Columbia hospital in The Dalles.

Mrs Grace Smith, mother of Mrs Ernest Woods, was here caring for the Woods' children while their parents were in Portland. The first of the week Mrs Woods returned to Portland taking her mother home and the children down to take in the rose festival.

Joe Johnson of OSC was here last week to conduct a judging demonstration at the Ted Ball ranch where 4-H clubbers were told how to tell a good one from one not so good.

Mrs Clarence Sparling of Portland was here last week to visit her mother, Mrs R. C. Byers for a few days.

Mrs Bernard Martin went to the hospital last week after
