

Rufus Women Plan Booster Night

By Mrs. George Fox

The Home Economics club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Sam Brock with Mrs. Grace Medler as co-hostess. A dessert luncheon of apple pie with ice cream and coffee was served from individual card tables.

The business meeting was called to order by the vice-chairman Adeline McDonald in the absence of the chairman Mrs. Richie Dingle who is in The Dalles on account of her husband's illness. The roll call was answered by members telling of sick tricks in their homes.

The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Harland McDonald with Mrs. Joe Morris as co-hostess. Election of officers will also take place at that time.

There was a discussion on Booster Night, and Saturday, October 22, was the date set. The committee say they are putting on the party at this date and are not letting any obstacles interfere. The public is inited to come join the fun. It is free and the program begins at 8 p. m. at the grange hall.

The members decided to fix a Christmas box for the poor instead of the usual gift exchange among members at Christmas time. They also voted to have a supply of cards on hand to send to members who are ill. It was decided to discontinue the usual "three item" luncheon and have a 1:30 dessert luncheon instead. All club members who use Swan soap are asked to save their wrappers and bring them to club when they meet. For every two soap wrappers sent into the company, CARE will send a cake of soap overseas.

Club members present at this meeting were: Elizabeth Kuypers, Minnie Morris, Adeline McDonald, Lulu Wilson, Bernice Morris, Lucille Fox, Selma Watkins, Mrs. Herbert Church, and the hostesses, Mrs. Brock and Mrs. Medler.

The Tillicum club met October 7 at the country home of Mrs. Sam Brock. Dessert luncheon preceded the contract bridge game. Eight members and four guests were present. Scoring honors went to Sue Harris for members and to Leona Smith for guests.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Wilson were in Arlington recently visiting with their son in law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Buck Miller. The Willsons' went in their truck and while it was parked for a short while on the street both windshield wipers and the rear view mirror were stolen. There have been several reports recently of articles stolen from cars while they were parked at Poplar Grove station.

The Moro high school team is expected to come to Rufus Thursday for a football game with Rufus high boys.

Frank Smith is driving the hill school bus while the regular driver, Luther Steward, is deer hunting.

The Rufus school children enjoyed two days of vacation last week when the teachers were in The Dalles Thursday and Friday for institute.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson were at the stock show in Portland over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Curtis and daughter Juanita returned to their home in Portland after visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Benton Barnett. Fred, who has been working on the canal has finished his job here. Juanita Curtis visited her uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dufault in Wasco for several days while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown went to Portland Friday and on to the coast for a few days vacation. They also attended the P I while in Portland.

The Rufus Nimrods have again ventured forth in quest of a deer. The hunters who left Wednesday were Joe Morris and son Wally Joe, Luther Steward and sons, Howard and Jack, and Walter Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. William Meyers and son are returning to Arlington from Portland where Meyers has been employed for sometime in government work.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Morris were visitors in the valley last weekend as guests of Mrs. Morris' brothers Tom and Frank Hulery. The Hulery brothers operated a garage in Moro at one time and are known here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Byrd attended the stock show in Portland Sunday. They were accompanied to Portland by Robert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Whitchy of New Plymouth. The Byrds returned home while the Whitchy's remained in Portland to be with a brother who has been quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Church visited in Otis and Wecoma over the weekend. The Churches have daughters living there. Rufus is proud to have the shooting grandmother, Mrs. Church who came in with a 240 pound buck recently. Mrs. Church says it was her first deer, but hopes it won't be the last.

Mrs. Richie Dingle whose husband has been in a hospital in The Dalles for the last few weeks, was able to move her husband Wednesday to her house on Thirteenth street. Mr. Dingle suffered a stroke soon after he finished with his harvest work, and has been in the hospital since that time.

Visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brock over the weekend were his brother in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hunt, who live in Salem and Mr. and Mrs. V. G. Coleman and two sons of Portland. Also coming from The Dalles for Sunday dinner were their son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Brock.

Dinner guests Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Tate were Mr. and Mrs. Worth Tate of The Dalles and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tate and son Bob from Chicago. Frank Tate is a brother of Worth Tate and have been guests at their home in The Dalles. They have gone on to Portland to visit other relatives, but plan on a family reunion here before they return to Chicago again.

Mr. and Mrs. James Rice of Seattle an uncle and aunt of Mrs. Tate were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tate and family.

Coming from The Dalles to visit and attend the school dance with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Morris were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Millard and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Huffman.

Nary a drop of rain fell all week, and that is what the farmers are hoping and praying for. Some farmers in this community have gone ahead and deep seeded their wheat. Others are still undecided as what to do. It's very easy to lose the seed wheat right now, and that's no small item, wheat the price it is. If the wheat is seeded near the top of the ground the way the land is now, part of it probably would start to grow then die for lack of moisture.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Gullford and daughter, Velda, left Tuesday for Denver where they will visit Mr. Gullford's folks. According to a letter received by Mrs. E. Kuypers which was written Thursday they said they were going through Utah and the roads and weather had been ideal that far; they expected to reach Denver by Friday.

Mrs. Ted Elliot and daughters, Barbara and Gail, spent the school holiday week end with Mrs. Luther Steward. Mrs. Elliot will be remembered here as Mildred Chase.

Mrs. Joe Morris and son Keith spent the week end at the Jack Huffman home who live in the Chenoweth district in Wasco county.

Mr. and Mrs. William Auger of Portland spent Sunday with their son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris.

Guests for dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Brackett were Mr. and Mrs. James Tate.

Neal Eaton was an overnight guest of his school pal, Jerry Brackett.
