Roy Kunsman was up from The Dalles on business Tuesday.

Giles French was in Salem Monday to attend a meeting of the tax study committee which has planned a series of meetings to propose tax changes to the people. The first will be held in The Dalles April 17.

William Teutsch, extension director of OSC, stopped in Moro briefly Tuesday afternoon while on his way to Madras.

There is to be an observance of the birthday of the American Legion at the hall March 15, according to Mollie McLachlan who says there will be a potluck dinner at 7 p. m. for the Auxiliary and Legion members and she would like to have all of them come.

Miss Priscilla Meizer was home over the week end from OSC.

Mr. and Mrs. "Curley" DeMoss and son, Johnnie, spent the latter part of the week in Portland seeking medical attention for Johnnie. They motored on to Salem and Eugene, where they spent the night with Mrs. DeMoss' parents. While in Salem they visited her 90 year old grandmother.

John and Don DeMoss left the fore part of the week for Hansville, Wn., John returning to his home and Don to pick up the remainder of his household goods. Mrs. Don DeMoss is staying with the "Curley" DeMoss in her husband's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Landry came home this week and Jess looks much better after an operation and feels good also.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson are home again after a winter spent in southern California, most of it at San Diego. Theodore says they had a fine time without any frost or cold.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Barnum and Mrs. Ora Peetz were dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. Maggie Barnum.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powell of Portland came up this week to stay at the ranch while Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fuller take a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Thompson returned Wednesday from a trip to Pendleton where he attended a meeting for instruction in fertilization. Mrs. Thompson visited her parents in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Woods and family returned Sunday from a trip to Portland over the week end.

Did you ever hear of a paint mixer?
Of course, you knew they mixed it someway other than by hand.

Anyway we've got one. We can mix paint with Old Man Fuller or anyone.

There may be some cans of paint around your house, basement or shed that you could use if it wasn't so hard and sorta unmixed like. Bring that right it and we'll mix it for you free.
We like to run this mixer.

Rufus News of North End

Hugh Matheson of Paso Robles, California, came on a visit to see his sister, Mrs. Glen Thompson who is ill in The Dalles and living with her two sons, first one then the other. They are Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Thompson. Hugh was a guest of Glen Thompson and his brother in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Benton Barnett while in Rufus. He was called home unexpectedly so didn't get to stay his visit out.

Mr. and Mrs. Benton Barnett and Mrs. Eugene Eaton were business callers in The Dalles Thursday.

Glen Thompson went to The Dalles Thursday to get his wife and take her to the Dalles hospital for treatment and a check-up.

A converted Jew, a Mr. Beskins, held a service in Rufus Wednesday March 1. Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Roberts took him to Ellensburg, Wn., Thursday. He is leaving for Europe soon to speak in several countries and later goes to Jerusalem to preach to his own people.

Rufus church services have been more or less hit and miss all winter, due to cold weather and bad roads, but are gradually getting back to normal. Work on the new church building has progressed in spite of cold weather. The interior is being finished, and wiring is getting under way.

The P-TA met at Rufus Monday night for a regular meeting. Mrs. Allen Tom, president, had charge of the business meeting. After opening Mrs. Tom turned it over to Mrs. Leonard Jordon, chairman of the carnival. Plans are all set for a big time Saturday night, March 11 at 8 p.m. at the Rufus gym, so come one, come all and help raise funds to start the school lunch program at Rufus school. It's plans for a family night, so all the family will have something to do. A nominating committee for new officers was selected; on it are Mrs. Fay Brackett, Frank-Smith and Mrs. Leland Medler.

During the refreshment hour a pink and white decorated basin filled with baby gifts was presented to Mrs. Donal Brislain who then opened the gifts for the pleasure of all. Miss Bobby Lloyd assisted Mrs. Brislain with the gifts. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. Sarah Giannonatti and Mrs. Fay Brackett. The names chosen to serve on the refreshments committee for the April meeting were Mrs. Bill Meyers, Mrs. Leland Medler and Mrs. George Fox.

The Rufus High school girls will motor to Ione Tuesday night where they will have a game of volleyball with the Ione girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Engberg of The Dalles were overnight guests Saturday of Engberg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Engberg.

Scene In University's New Carson Hall

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Meyers and son Billy have moved up on the hill to the Richie Dingle place. They lived in Frank Bartholomew's house during the winter while he was in Chicago visiting his sister, but he has returned to Rufus again. He got out of a hard winter here.

George Fox ran low on feed for his cattle and had to purchase some additional hay and grain. The grass is coming along fine on the range, but it has been so cold here, it's hard for it to make much progress.

The James Weir Memorial fund school districts held a joint meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Johnson. The meeting was attended by Attorney Don E. Heisler of The Dalles.

Rufus grange met Thursday evening in regular session with Master S. A. Wilson presiding. Around twenty-five people were present to greet Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bryant of Seattle, Wn., former residents of Rufus and members of Rufus grange. Mr. and Mrs. Bryant who had dropped their grange membership became members again the first of the year.

There was a card party at Rufus grange hall Saturday night. Six tables were in play. There were several guests who visited during the card game, but enjoyed the dancing which followed. Square dance, Paul Jones, and other dances were enjoyed with music from records and a loud speaker belonging to Harold Engberg. Harold will leave the machine with his father for use of the grangers. Winning high score at cards were Judge and Mrs. Curt Tom. Consolation prizes went to S. A. Wilson and Mrs. Benton Barnett. Hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Andy Engberg and Mr. and Mrs. Benton Barnett. The next card party will be Saturday March 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bryant of Seattle, Wn., arrived Thursday to be guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Wilson. They left Saturday morning to visit in Wasco and Portland before returning to Seattle where Bryant is a section foreman for the railroad there. Bryant also worked for the railroad when they lived at Biggs and the children attended the Rufus school.

Some of the Elks from this community enjoyed the dance night.
