Frank vonBorstel Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank vonBorstel of Grass Valley, will leave his position as club agent in Douglas county soon to go to New Zealand where he will attend Massey Agricultural college on a government scholarship.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles French left Monday morning for John Day where he talked before the chamber of commerce on reappointment and on to Baker Tuesday to speak again on the same subject before a group there and at Haines to a Baker county farm bureau meeting. They returned home Wednesday.

J. K. McKean was in Portland the first of the week on business. Mr. and Mrs. John Sell and family of The Dalles visited in Moro briefly Wednesday.

Now is the time to put out slug bait on perennials just coming through the ground, especially Delphiniums. If slug bait isn't available sprinkle lead arsenate finely over the plants. It's also time to spray peony plants as the red tips show, to control the bud blight. Use Bordeaux mixture, either dry or as a spray. It isn't too early to plant the first garden peas.

The Moro city council held a special meeting Wednesday night and voted to go ahead with digging a new ditch and planning of a bridge across First street without the services of an engineer. Water bills may be paid at the Ranch & Home store.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Miller came home Saturday after spending the winter in North Carolina and Florida. Mr. Miller has a brother and sister in North Carolina who he visited as well as visiting the scenes he knew when he was a young man. Conditions are much different now, he says, for the farmers have good roads on which to move their produce whereas there used to be no way to get a crop to market after it was grown.

The PNG club of the Rebekah lodge had a card party at the hall Tuesday night with Mrs. Mary Eva and Mrs. Ernest Houston as hostesses. James Reed of The Dalles was here a couple of days this week to work in the newspaper plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Walter, Wilbur Kayse and Darwin Van Gilder were among members of The Dalles unit of Oregon State Employees association attending the meeting in that city Saturday night.

The Eastern Star met at the Masonic hall Tuesday evening for their regular meeting, inviting members of the Bethlehem chapter of Moro up for friendship night. Mrs. Kenneth Young worthy matron and Mrs. Ronald Powell, grand representative of Minnesota, were honored by being escorted to the East and presented with corsages.

NEWS FROM RUFUS

By Mrs. George L. Fox

The Rufus boys grade school basketball team motored to Moro Monday for a game with Moro boys. The Moro boys beat the Rufus boys by a score of 25 to 21. At the game the boys had when Moro came to Rufus last week, Rufus again lost by two points. These were exciting games. Moro is the only team to defeat the Rufus boys this season.

Miss Velda Gullford will enter on Wednesday nurses training at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland.

Karen Macnab spent Wednesday night in the hospital after having an infected tooth pulled. Jeanie Macnab was an overnight guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Medler Wednesday while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Macnab were with Karen in The Dalles. Mrs. Kenneth Fridley was hostess to the Community Sewing club Wednesday afternoon, at her farm home.

Mr. and Mrs. Donal Brislain were the proud parents of a baby daughter born March 13. The little girl who weighed in at 6 lb. 13 oz. has been named Carolee. Brislain is the boys coach in athletics and teacher in high school. They have a three-year-old son, Charles Gray, a medical student in Portland, spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rolland Johnson. The Johnsons have a two-year-old niece of Portland for a house guest for a couple of weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Engberg and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Engberg left early Friday morning for Spokane where they spent the weekend with relatives.

Miss Dolores Fox left Tuesday for Seattle to resume her studies at Seattle university where she is a sophomore. Miss Fox arrived home Thursday to spend spring vacation with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. George Fox.

I hear there is a rumor about that I have retired from the hotel business. As one of my old friends in Canyon City used to say when anyone asked him if he was getting married, "T'ain't likely so."

No sir, I am not retired, and any time you come to Portland you'll find me at my desk in the lobby of the Roosevelt Hotel, operated by my daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fetting. I am promotion manager, and my little newspaper, "The Inn-Side News," will continue to reach subscribers from the Roosevelt Hotel, S. W. Park and Salmon, Portland, Oregon.

I know you'll like the Roosevelt and the L'Abbe restaurant. We're close to downtown, but we're out of the heavy traffic district, and you can get a good night's sleep here. Pretty easy to find parking places, too.

Next time you're in town, drop in and say hello.

"...just landed that order, dear—and my bags are packed"

Red-letter days seem brighter and ordinary days more cheerful when you chat over Long Distance. For your voice means so much to loved ones, expresses your personality so well, helps you say so clearly exactly what you mean.

With rates so low, you can use Long Distance often. You can say as much in three minutes as in a letter—if you plan your call in advance.

It's wise to keep a list of out-of-town numbers. If you give Operator the number—not just the name and address—your call speeds through three times as fast...often in 80 seconds.

Use Long Distance—so personal, so fast, so inexpensive
