The First Baptist church will be presenting their Daily Vacation Bible school program Friday evening at the church in Grass Valley. Everyone is invited to attend. The Sherman County Journal was in complete error in last week's issue about the Bible schools being held at the churches in Grass Valley, Wasco and Moro. The paper omitted the announcement of the Grass Valley school which began June 5. It stated that the Moro church school would begin June 5 when that announcement came from Wasco whose school did start June 5. It erroneously stated the Moro Bible school, would begin June 5, when it will begin June 12. There was nothing correct about any announcement. The publishers hereby apologize for the errors, but still wonder how it was possible to be 100% wrong on so simple an assignment.

Purchases of 4H Club beef were made by A. A. Dunlap. One was for Guy Haynes of Yamhill, Oregon, and the others are for Alfred Payne, and for the Dunlap locker.
