Mr. and Mrs. Art Watkins moved this week to a ranch near Wasco. The Wright house which they have been occupying has been sold to Lawrence Warren, who with his wife and daughter will move into soon. Mr. Warren, soil conservation district superintendent, has been committing from The Dalles since taking over his work here.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommie Jones are on vacation this week from their post office duties spending the time in Portland and vicinity. Mrs. Darwin Van Gilder and Mrs. Fred Walter are putting out the mail, etc., during their absence.

Mrs. Mollie McLachlan had as guests Friday night Mr. and Mrs. John Malnerich of Centralia, Wn. Mrs. Gladys Morrison and grand daughter, Sharon Coelsch, spent the week end in Portland taking in the Rose Festival, the zoo, and other points of interest. They made the trip by train from The Dalles, riding in one of the new "astra dome" passenger cars with the glassed-in roof dome for unrestricted view, and returned on the streamliner. Sharon much preferred the "astra dome".

Mrs. Grace Wallan left for her home in Garfield, Wn., after spending several days visiting friends here, going with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ginn, who were making a trip into that state. The Ginn's came home with water buckets full of mushrooms gathered on Cabbage hill near Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Bon Christianson moved the latter part of last week from the Axtell house to the Mollie McLachlan house vacated by the Archie McCrae family at the close of the school year.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Higley and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Belshe left early Sunday morning for Ontario where they will spend the week attending the state grange meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bruckert are also at the grange convention.

Miss Anajeen Knighten came home Sunday for a few days visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willy Knighten, before returning the latter part of the week for Eugene where she will attend summer school at the University of Oregon.

Miss Gloria Douma graduated Sunday from the University of Oregon and came home Monday with her parents, who were down for the graduation exercises.

Mr. and Mrs. John Foss returned home Wednesday night after spending a few days at Astoria with their daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Hellberg and children. John got worried about his garden and had to come home.

B. H. Roberson and Giles French were in Ontario Tuesday evening and saw some of the state grange convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Powell left New York by air this week for a trip through western Europe.
