

Rufus Club Holds Meeting

The Home Economics club of Rufus grange was entertained at the home of Mrs. Andy Engberg with Mrs. Sam Brock as co-hostess. A one o'clock luncheon was served by the hostesses. The business meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mrs. Trace Fields. Roll call was showing their wedding pictures, or pictures of their parents by the members. Mrs. Sadie Rich, the county Home Ec. chairman, reported who would attend state grange and bring back a report. A year book of the club was sent to the state convention. Mrs. Sadie Rich gave a reading on wedding customs. This was followed by a pantomime of a mock wedding. The ones taking part were, Mrs. Leo Watkins, the musician, Mrs. Atlee Wilson, the preacher, Mrs. Walt Morris, the best man, Mrs. Sam Brock, the groom, Mrs. Elizabeth Kuypers, the bride, Mrs. Andy Engberg and Mrs. Sadie Rich as the bridesmaids, Mrs. Harland McDonald as the flower girl. This was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Curtis Neal, the new member, was welcomed into the club. A guest of the afternoon was Mrs. James Maddox of Wasco. Other members present were Mesdames Curt Tom, Roland Johnson, Alta Smith, Bob Byrd, Bill Huck, George Drinkard and Mrs. Joe Morris, who won the gift at the drawing.

Mrs. George Fox entertained the community card club at her home Wednesday evening. Pinochle was played with Mrs. Tom Macnab winning first and consolation going to Mrs. Leland Medler. Refreshments were served late in the evening.

Rain was what the community was looking for, and rain was what it received this last week. A big rain came last Wednesday making the roads so soft they were slippery. Leland Medler had ordered a big truck load of lumber to begin his new home, so when it arrived Wednesday as far as the four corners it was unable to make it up the hill. Medler took his truck and put part of the load on it, but the lumber truck needed more assistance to make it to the ranch. So Medler then got his tractor and pulled the truck in. A much bigger rain than the first fell again Monday. A dry spot on the earth just wouldn't have a chance after that rain. This should clinch the prospects of a good wheat crop for 1950. The wheat is beginning to head. The Nazarene Sunday school members of The Dalles came to Rufus Thursday to have a game of baseball with the Rufus men. Rufus beat with a score of 29 to 14. Rev. Adrian Roberts was the umpire. Members of the Rufus team were Fay Brackett, Ray Brown, Ernie Engles, Jerry Brackett, Vincent Rice, Ronald Colton, Jack Steward, Bill Coats, Milton and Gene Fridley. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adams and daughters of Arlington were in Rufus Friday afternoon. They celebrated their daughter Francene's first birthday with a party at the Fleck Orchard camp ground. Master Sergeant and Mrs. Albert Thompson and son Jerry of California are visiting Thompson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Thompson in Rufus, this week.

Clark, the wife of a former Rufus pastor is nursing Mrs. Engles. The two children of the Engles are staying with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mathieson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Brackett and Rev. and Mrs. Adrian Roberts went to Portland Friday to see about the seats for the church going up in Rufus. This week the men expect to get the chimney for the church put up. Monday, an insurance man was appraising the value of the church. The Daily Vacation Bible School concert of the Wasco Methodist church will be held Friday, June 16, at 8 p. m. All welcome.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Oh—My Aching Feet!

Other night just as I was settling down with a book and a mellow glass of beer, the wife calls down. "Joe—I almost forgot—you and I are going over to the High School and take dancing lessons!" Now, I can waltz with the best of them, so I put up a quiet struggle against going but it was no use. Turns out it was the class in square dancing. And from the look on some of the other men I judged I wasn't the only one there who had been taken by surprise! Miss Williams and Curly Lawson taught us what to do with our feet, and before it was over, da- if I wasn't actually enjoying myself. Going back next week, too. From where I sit, we sometimes get an idea into our head for against something and then hang onto it for dear life. Whether it's square dancing, or the right to enjoy temperate beer or ale now and then, we owe it to ourselves as Americans to take an open-minded attitude — that's even after we make up our minds about it!
