RUFUS NEWS

Mrs. George Fox
One day last week the high school students of Rufus school held election of officers. Howard Steward, a senior was elected president. Cecelia Belloni, the only senior girl was made vice-president. Jack Steward of the junior class will be treasurer, and Buzz Brand also a junior was elected sergeant of arms. These officers were for the student body. The different classes elected their own officers.

Miss Cecelia Belloni will be the editor of the school paper which is called the "Arrowhead". Lunch was served Monday noon for the first time to the students and faculty of Rufus school. The Rufus school building is well kept up with newly varnished floors in the classroom and gymnasium. Additional wiring in the electrical system was also put in for this year.

Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Fields were pleasantly surprised last Thursday afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Laird and Mrs. E. Storm of Clovis, New Mexico came to visit them. Mr. Storm and Mrs. Laird are brother and sister and will be remembered by some in the community as Florence and Everett Storm. They, with their parents lived in the China-Hollow district where they attended school at the China Hollow and Wasco schools from 1900 until 1905.

Their mother was a sister of Will Curry. They are now making an extended trip through all the western states. Their mother passed away several years ago, but the father passed away only recently at the age of ninety-three years. After spending the night with the Fields, whom they have kept in contact all through the years, they went to look at the old China Hollow school house, and the place where they used to live, which is now the Dr. Morgan ranch. They also called at the Bill Andrew's farm to renew old acquaintances there, then they continued on towards California.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fox and son Jimmy returned home Friday evening after being gone since Monday morning. The Foxes took their daughters' Eleanor and Dolores to Corvallis where they enrolled as a senior and junior respectively at OSC. After leaving Corvallis they were overnight guests Wednesday at the Pilot Butte Inn in Bend while going through Redmond the auction sales yards. Thursday afternoon and evening they were guests of Mr. Fox's nephew Geo. Fehrenbacher and family who are recent farmers near Prineville. Fehrenbacher who introduced potato raising in the Prineville area, has sixty acres in potatoes this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allan of Klondike were business callers Thursday in Redmond. George Fox Jr. was a houseguest last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Blackburne while his folks were gone. Mrs. Melvon Brady spent last week end in Portland.

How do you like our new shingle?

We're your new headquarters for General Electric Automatic Heating Equipment.

Our new appointment is a big event for you. It means that General Electric Heating Equipment is available—right now—right here in your own community. It means that you now have our organization at hand to install G-E equipment—and keep it serviced.

We welcome the chance of telling you personally just why G-E heating is "just right." There are a lot of things you will want to know about cost, installation, how the equipment works, and why it works better.

A phone call or a post card will bring you the answers.
