

Mariners Hear Talk On Visit to Germany

The Mariners Club, young peoples fellowship group of the Moro Presbyterian Church, were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Thompson Sunday evening for their bi-monthly meeting.

For the program Mrs. Mary Eva told of her visit with relatives in Germany this past summer. Through some of her actual experiences and some of the things she saw, it was quite apparent that people in this country take things for granted that are unheard of, or considered luxuries, in Germany. For refreshments the hosts and co-hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Thompson, served a delicious dessert of chiffon pudding, home made cookies and coffee.

The next meeting, planned for February 4, will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell. Party plans are being made by Mr. and Mrs. George Koehler and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Thompson.

SUPER DELUXE FOXHOLE . . . This foxhole was the temporary home of P.F.C. William E. Morton, Nashville, as U.S. marines battled their way toward Chosin reservoir, important source of power for North Korean electric plants.

Lena Brock, chaplain; Mrs. Wilma Maddox, R.S.N.G.; Mrs. Grace Medler, L.S.N.G.; Leo Watkins, inside guardian, and Mrs. Selma Watkins, musician.

Lupine Rebekah Lodge No. 116, of Moro, installed Mrs. Gladys Morrison, noble grand; Mrs. Earl Gentry, vice grand; Helen Kruger, past noble grand; Mrs. Helen Martin, secretary; Mrs. Leona Douma, R.S.V.G.; Mrs. Clara Huston, treasurer; Mrs. Maggie Barnum, L.S.N.G.; Mrs. J. C. Freeman, R.S.V.G.; Mrs. R. J. Bruckert, L.S.V.G.; Mrs. Theiba Miller, warden; Mrs. Ralph Eakin, conductor; Mrs. Mary Eva, inside guardian; Mrs. Mollie McLacklan, outside guardian, and Mrs. Bertha Belshee, musician.

Refreshments were served by the two lodges at the close of the ceremonies.

Oregon Scenic Films Shown at Womens Club

The Moro Women's Club met at the club house on Thursday, January 18, Mrs. Orville Hockman presided at the business meeting due to the absence of the president, Mrs. Paul May.

The movie, "This is Oregon," was shown by Edwin Balsiger. This was a beautiful colored film showing scenes from all parts of Oregon.

Coffee and cookies were served by the hostess, Mrs. Ernest Eslinger, and Mrs. John Parker, director for the day, poured.

The next meeting will be on February 1, with Mrs. Howard Conlee and Mrs. Maggie Barnum acting as hostesses. Mrs. George Mitchell will be director and will show slides of flowers and talk about flowers at the Experiment Station.

Junior Ladies Hold First Meeting of '51

Mrs. Wilma Koehler was hostess at her home, Thursday night, to the Junior Ladies Club for its first meeting of the New Year. There were seventeen members and two guests present.

A very interesting meeting was conducted by the new president, Mrs. Betty Keyes. It was voted to change the meeting nights from the first and third Thursdays, to the first and third Tuesdays of the month.

The guest speaker for the evening was Mrs. Peggy Baumgartner, of Grass Valley, who gave a most helpful and interesting talk on the raising of children from four to fourteen years of age.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess, with Mrs. Jo Warren pouring. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Lucille Gearhart on February 6.

Wasco-Moro Rebekahs Hold Installation Here

At a joint installation of Wasco and Moro Rebekah lodges at Moro Tuesday night Marion Rebekah Lodge No. 127, of Wasco, installed Mrs. Hazel Engberg, noble grand; Mr. Marion Howell, vice grand; Mrs. Selma Watkins, secretary; Andy Engberg, treasurer; S. J. Brock, warden; Mrs.

Wasco Women's Club Holds Regular Meeting

Mrs. E. D. McKee and Mrs. George van Gaasbeck were hostesses at the McKee home to members of the Wasco Women's Study Club on Friday, Jan. 19.

In answer to an appeal from the Save the Children Federation, clothing and other items will be sent for needy children.

It was voted to send a contribution to the Scholarship Loan Fund. Mrs. Halley, legislative chairman, gave an interesting resume of the activities of the state legislature and discussed some of the bills which have been presented to that body now in session.

Later she played several records giving the highlights of the convention of the General Federation of Women's Clubs held in Boston last June.

Refreshments were served after the meeting from a lace covered table, with Mrs. Walter Bruckert and Mrs. Harley Dutton pouring.

Moro Personals

Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell had as house guests over the week end, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hertz, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Koepen and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Temple. These are all from Pendleton, where Mr. Temple is mayor. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tubbs, also of Pendleton, were Sunday callers at the Mitchell home.

It was noticed in a Portland paper that Kathryn and Susan Moberg, formerly of Moro, were on the honor roll last term at Oregon College of Education at Monmouth.

Mrs. Jennie Martin went to Boise, Idaho, last week for a two day visit with Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Haskin. She went with Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Eakin at The Dalles, who brought her back to Moro, Monday forenoon. Mrs. Haskin is the daughter of the Eakins.

The Juvenile Grange of Harlandview held a Bingo party after the regular grange meeting last Saturday night. The party proved a success financially and the young folks are contemplating the purchase of a phonograph for their organization.

Mrs. Vernon Flatt returned to Moro on Wednesday from Portland where she has been for about a month, having undergone a major operation while there.

Mrs. Truman Strong was hostess Tuesday afternoon to a group at three tables of bridge. Mrs. E. H. Moore had high score and Mrs. Thomas Thompson low score.

Priscilla Melzer arrived home Wednesday evening to spend a few days until the second semester begins next Monday at Lewis and Clark College where she is a student.

About the County

Grass Valley

Mrs. A. F. Balzer

The Wheatland Rebekah lodge of Kent held their final of a series of card parties at the Legion hall in Kent Thursday evening. Seven tables of pinochle were in play. The grand prizes were won by Mrs. Etta Buchanan and Frank von Borstel, and the prizes for the evening were won by Mrs. Vern Foster and John Decker for high scores and Mrs. George Wilson and Bill Pauch held low scores. Candy and cookies were sold by the Rebekahs during the evening. Refreshments were served at the close of the party by the committee consisting of Mrs. Bob Helyer, Mrs. John Reckman, Mrs. Durward Helyer and Mrs. Kenneth Sather.

Grass Valley Rebekah Lodge No. 118 met at the I. O. O. F. hall Wednesday evening for its regular meeting. Mrs. Archie Cantrall, noble grand; presided with 13 members and one guest in attendance. After the meeting Mrs. Alice Smith invited them over to the restaurant for coffee and cookies.

Eugene Knott showed films from the Cancer Society at the Masonic hall last Tuesday evening before the Eastern Star held their regular meeting. It was announced at the meeting that Mrs. Irene McKinley, associate grand conductress of the grand chapter of Oregon, would make her official visit on March 1, at 1 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Amandus von Borstel and son Philip of Kent were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank von Borstel.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald von Borstel attended the card party at Kent Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Reynolds and daughter Julie went to The Dalles Monday to meet her mother, Mrs. C. H. Kellogg, who arrived from Portland to spend a week with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Reynolds went to The Dalles Monday where Mrs. Reynolds entered the hospital for an operation on Tuesday.

Mrs. Archie Cantrall, Mrs. Jerry Duncan and Mrs. Bruce Alley went to Portland Thursday to visit the former's son and Mrs. Duncan's daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Cantrall. Mrs. Alley visited her mother, Mrs. Mayme Gould. They brought little Richard Allen Cantrall home with them to spend a few weeks here with his grandparents.

Sam Stark, Harry Stark and Al Fox were business visitors in Bend Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Olds motored to Maupin Sunday night to meet Jimmy Ziegler, who arrived there by plane from Fort Hood, Texas. He will spend a week or ten days here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ziegler.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Alberty took their infant daughter to Portland January 9 to the Providence hospital for medical attention. Mrs. Boyce Blaylock accompanied them to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Alberty and Mrs. Blaylock returned home Thursday, leaving the baby at the hospital for treatments.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Peters and son Arden and Miss Jackie Horner were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eben Kee.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Smith and son Larry and Mr. and Mrs. John Block were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Alley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Trimble were recent visitors in The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Eben Kee were business visitors in The Dalles Wednesday. His sister, Mrs. Loy Cochran and son Gordon of Portland came home with them and stayed overnight returning home Thursday.

Among the business visitors in The Dalles Friday were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blagg, Mrs. Clair Balzer, Geraldine Rust, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schilling, Sam Stark, Mr. and Mrs. Olan Stark and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eakin and daughter Mauna Faye.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Schilling and son Gary were dinner guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Schilling, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Barnett and Mrs. C. R. Anderson went to Portland Friday where the ladies received medical attention. They returned home Saturday.

Among the business visitors in The Dalles Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Martin and daughter Deanna, Peggy Reckman, Mrs. Bruce Alley and children, Mrs. B. C. Baumgartner and children, Mrs. James Easter and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Clodfelter and son Wendell, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Adams and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bayer and children, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Payne and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stradley and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Elsinger and daughters, and Mrs. Bernard McNeely.

Mr. and Mrs. George DeMoss and family of Moro and Art Allgeier were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Rust.

Mrs. Bernard Martin and Mrs. Vernon Eakin and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bayer and daughter Julia were business visitors in The Dalles Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Eakin and family returned home Monday from a trip of several weeks in Charlotte, N. C., where they visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald von Borstel and daughters Joy and Cathy and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Reynolds and daughter Julie went to The Dalles Sunday where they attended services at St. Paul's Episcopal church.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace May and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Eakin went to The Dalles Friday to the concert at the high school auditorium when The Dalles Community Concert association presented John Tyers, baritone.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Reckman and daughters Peggy and Katherine returned home last Monday from San Francisco where they attended the Cattlemen's association meeting. Upon their return home they received word that her mother, Mrs. Ella Sales, fell and broke her hip at Payette, Ida. Mr. and Mrs. Reckman and Katherine left Tuesday for Payette to be with Mrs. Sales.

A group of Grass Valley Young People went to Kent Sunday evening after church service for a Sing Spration. The Kent Young People were hosts for the evening and served refreshments.

Mrs. A. A. Dunlap was a business visitor in The Dalles Monday.

Mrs. A. L. Kintner returned home Wednesday from Grandview, Wash., where she spent several days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones, and her brother, Bob Jones, who was home on leave.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young and children came up Monday from Portland to pack their household goods to take back to Portland Wednesday. The children will stay here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Young a week or ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Myrtle Smith had as dinner guests Sunday, Mrs. L. D. Eakin, Miss Helen Wilson, Miss Jane Drake and Bob Roberts of The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Myrtle Smith and son Lowell were business visitors in The Dalles Wednesday.

RUFUS NEWS

Mrs. Robert Morris and infant son returned home Friday from the hospital in The Dalles.

about folks you do know or would enjoy knowing

Rufus News

(By Mrs. George L. Fox)

Mrs. Leonard Jordan is again chairman of the Rufus district Infantile Paralysis Drive. Mrs. Jordan says the chairmen hope to make this a big year in donations on account of the heavy run on Paralysis funds last year. She wishes it made clear that 50 per cent of the funds given remain in the county for its own use. Mrs. Jordan has been chairman of this drive for a number of years, and the community is proud of all she has accomplished.

On Prayer Meeting nights at the Rufus Nazarene church they are taking a course in a book entitled, "Labor of Love." Everyone finishing this course satisfactorily will receive a certificate. Seven people have enrolled, including the teacher, Rev. Adrain Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morris, Mrs. Robert Byrd and children motored to Arlington Sunday for dinner with the Frank Adams family. Later they went to the basketball game between the Harlan Globe Trotters and the Arlington town team.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson motored to Arlington to see the basketball game Sunday night. Also going from Rufus were Mr. and Mrs. Wess Hinkley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McDonald spent the weekend in Portland. They recently had word from their son Bill who is on the Destroyer U. S. John R. Pierce. It is reported that the Pierce is one of two destroyers escorting General Eisenhower on his tour to Europe.

It is a long way around via Wasco from Rufus to Biggs for the men of a half dozen families who work in Biggs. Since the slide in the highway closed this route, these men take their car as far as the slide, and walk the rest of the way to Biggs.

The Rufus Grange met in regular session Thursday evening, with Master Andy Engberg presiding. The usual business was transacted and lunch served at the close of the meeting.

Randall Pierson, who is a new pupil at Rufus school, is in the sixth grade. He lives at Fleck Orchard and is a nephew of Mrs. Harland McDonald.

Mr. and Mrs. William Meyers and son Billy spent the weekend in Umatilla visiting at the Albert Beig and Jerry Coleman homes. Mrs. Beig and Mrs. Coleman are sisters of Mr. Meyers. The latter's father, Lincoln Meyers, returned home with the Lincoln Meyers for an extended visit before returning to California. On their way home they stopped in Arlington for dinner and to visit at the Frank Adams home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Meyers are driving a new Chevrolet pickup.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Engberg and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Engberg spent Sunday afternoon in Arlington and attended the basketball game of the Harlan Globe Trotters and Arlington team.

The show which will be featured at Rufus school next Tuesday night, Jan. 30, will be "When My Baby Smiles at Me."

BLUMS

FrostKist

Ice Cream

2 1/2 Gal.	$4.00
1 Gal.	1.75
1/2 Gal.	1.00
Quart	.50
Pint	.25

Try Rayve

Beefo's

Beefo's

BEEFO'S

At the CAPITAL CITY, Moro, Oregon

Did you ever notice how many people eat here? And did you ever think why? Maybe its because the food is good

Beefo's

Beefo's

Enjoy Old Sunny Brook BRAND

the whiskey that's

"Cheerful as its Name"

Taste it once—and you'll want to broadcast to your friends your discovery of cheerful Old Sunny Brook. Since 1891, this fine Kentucky whiskey has been pleasing millions. Tune in on real pleasure tonight! Try Old Sunny Brook.

$3.60 5th

$2.25 pt.

LOOK FOR THIS WATCHMAN ON EVERY BOTTLE

KENTUCKY WHISKEY-A BLEND 86 PROOF • 45% GRAIN NEUTRAL SPIRITS • THE OLD SUNNY BROOK COMPANY, LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

If . . .

If you want to sell something to Sherman county people the best medium is the Sherman County Journal. It gets around. And while it is winter it's a good time to advertise and sell any surplus equipment or livestock to some one who can use it to better advantage. Advertising is a service everyone can use.

If you want to learn of the doings of Sherman Countians, read the Sherman County Journal. In it are stories of the county's work and play, its wheat and stock, its government and the state's government, its people and their activities, its triumphs and defeats.

The Sherman County Journal is the only newspaper in the world that is primarily interested in Sherman county. It is the newspaper of Sherman county. Its editorial policy is for the betterment of Sherman county. It is written of, by and for Sherman Countians.

Sherman County Journal

Tele-fun by Warren Goodrich

"Sorry I didn't answer sooner, but I'm tired out. Just got back from delivering an elephant baby!" . . . You won't miss receiving your important calls if you answer the telephone quickly . . . Pacific Telephones.