RUFUS PTA ELECTS ITS NEW OFFICERS

The Parent-Teachers' Association held its regular April meeting Monday night at the Rufus school. Mrs. Allan Tom, president, presided at the business meeting.

The nominating committee, Donald Macnab, Mrs. Martha Brady and Mrs. Wycliffe Rice presented names for new officers for the coming year, and there being no other nominations, they were elected as follows: Mrs. Charles Wilson, president; Mrs. Joe Morris, vice president; Mrs. George Fox, secretary, and Mrs. Wm. Macnab, treasurer.

Mrs. Charles Wilson and Mrs. Allan Tom were elected delegates to the state and national P.T.A. convention to be held in Seaside the week of April 23.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Tom and Mrs. Michael O'Brien who served ice cream, cookies and coffee.

WEATHER HASTENS SPRING ACTIVITIES

It was a nice warm week in general. Farmers put forth every effort to get planted whatever land they had idle. They had left some land last fall to plant spring barley but due to timing of restrictions, they planted spring wheat instead.

The ground has plenty of moisture in it yet. A freak shower fell Friday afternoon when a lot of rain fell in a short time, but it seemed to hit just the extreme eastern part of the county.

The birds seem eager to set up housekeeping and are going about the nest building business. Many new born calves are seen playing beside their mothers, and it is common to hear the query in this farming community, "Have you got your baby chickens yet?"

MISSIONARY SOCIETY HAS EVENING MEETING

The Women's Missionary Society had their annual supper Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Brackett. Supper was served to 18 guests from a lace covered table with a missionary tree as a centerpiece. This tree was decorated with pictures of Missionaries from different countries. A program followed the supper. Roll call was answered by each telling of a Missionary whose name corresponded with the members. A special song was rendered by Mrs. Adrian Roberts. A play entitled, "The Woman Who Turned Back," was put on by Mrs. John Mathieson, Mrs. Wycliffe Rice, Mrs. Fay Brackett and Miss Audrey Blackburne.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thompson left for Salem Friday to be guests of Mrs. Thompson's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Deye. While there the Thompsons and Deyes made a trip to the coast at Newport.

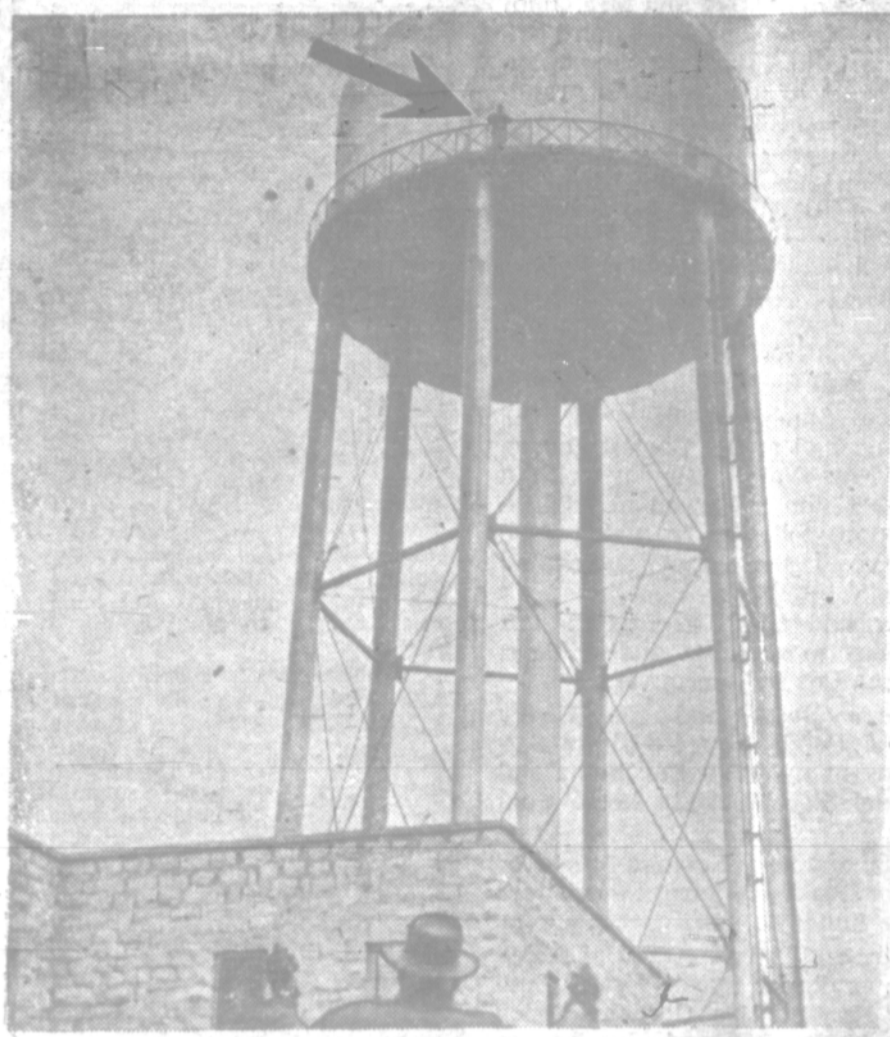

NOTICE

A meeting will be held at the court house on Tuesday, Apr. 10, at 8 p. m., regarding the proposed power line right-of-way through our farms in Sherman county. It is important that everyone interested be at this meeting.

MAN THREATENS LEAP . . . Convict Thomas Blackburn, atop water tower at Joliet penitentiary, turns a deaf ear as Prison Chaplain E. Grey Wlanger pleads with him to come down. After shouting insults at prison guards for five hours, Blackburn descended of his own will. Warden Joseph E. Ragen said that Convict Blackburn refused to give any reason for his act. The water tower is 90 feet tall. Blackburn is shown in middle of lower catwalk.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Engberg entertained a group of relatives at dinner Saturday evening, celebrating the birthdays of Mrs. James Mobley of Eugene, Mrs. Ada Dingle of The Dalles, and also Mr. and Mrs. Andy Engberg. Other guests were James Mobley and Mrs. Susie Mason.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Langford of The Dalles spent the weekend at the home of their daughter and family, Mrs. Fay Brackett.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Engles and daughter have moved to Fortuna,

Marie von Borstel Honored Thursday At Bridal Shower

Mrs. Orville Ruggles, Mrs. Lester Barnum, Mrs. Willy Knighten and Mrs. Claus Bardenhagen were hostesses at a bridal shower held at the L.O.O.F. hall Thursday afternoon in honor of Miss Marie von Borstel.

The hall was decorated at one end with a rainbow made of colored crepe paper and at the end of the rainbow was a pot of gold behind which were the gifts. Bouquets of spring flowers were used about the room. Mrs. Lester Barnum presented the bride-to-be with a tea rosebud corsage.

A program was given consisting of a tap dance by Deanna Martin and Jeanie and Susan Baumgartner, with Mrs. Ruggles playing for them; a reading, "Marriage Advice," by Mrs. Bernard Martin, and two piano solos, "O Promise Me" and "The Sunshine of Your Smile," by Mrs. Ruggles.

About a dozen bride's books were assembled by the guests in different groups. They were given a book and some magazines from which to clip her picture, his picture, first meeting, friends, marriage, honeymoon, home and family. The group winning the prize were Mrs. T. M. Rolfe, Mrs. Wallace May and Miss Connie Wilson.

Mrs. Ruggles then escorted Miss von Borstel to the gift table where she opened the many lovely gift packages for the pleasure of the guests. She was assisted by Mrs. Donald von Borstel and Mrs. Sammy Holmes.

Refreshments of cookies, ice cream, tea and coffee were served from a table decorated with a bouquet of spring flowers. Mrs. Frank von Borstel and Miss Cassie Holmes poured and were assisted by Mrs. Donald von Borstel and Mrs. Dean Pinkerton.
