Rufus News

(By Mrs. George L. Fox)

Everyone is remarking how much the wheat has grown the past week. It is a fact, and the fields look like a lovely green carpet. Of course, this is the chop seeded last fall. Most of the spring wheat planting has been done, but it hasn't shown much growth yet. The land this spring wheat was seeded on was idle ground from last spring's plowing, but it is reported out in South Sherman county many farmers had to reseed land that had been winter killed. At the price wheat is now, this cost them some money.

BRIDAL SHOWER HONORS MISS DARLENE SMITH

A bridal shower was given Friday afternoon at Rufus grange hall honoring Darlene Smith whose marriage to Dick Peck of The Dalles is to take place April 5.

Mrs. Fay Brackett had charge of the decorating, using spring blossoms about the room. The table was covered with white crepe paper. Attached to crepe paper streamers were red hearts with Darlene and Dick written in white ink. The table was centered by a doll dressed as a bride.

Mrs. Joe Morris had charge of the program. In a jumbled word quiz Mrs. Rolland Johnson won the prize for getting them all correct. Mrs. Wycliffe Rice sang a solo, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Charles Wilson. Mrs. Joe Morris read a poem.

Miss Smith then opened her gifts to the pleasure of all present. She was assisted by her sister Miss Donna Smith and Mrs. Keith Thompson.

Refreshments of cake topped with whipped cream, coffee and punch were served to about 45 adults and a number of children, by Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. William Meyers, Mrs. W. A. Morris and Mrs. Robert Byrd. Out of town guests for the shower were Mrs. Dewey Thompson and Mrs. Keith Thompson of Moro, Mrs. Ernie Peck, Mrs. Leah Jensen and Mrs. Shirley Jensen of The Dalles.

The community card club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Tom Macnab when three tables of pinochle were played.

Mrs. Pat Macnab won the high score prize. Mrs. George Fox won second high and Mrs. Dewey Thomas received the consolation prize. Other members present were Mrs. Don Macnab, Mrs. Frank LeMaster, Mrs. William McNab, Mrs. Kenneth Fridley, Mrs. Chet Coats, Mrs. Elton Medler, Mrs. Ellen Swimm and the hostess Mrs. Tom Macnab.

Late in the evening, the hostess served angel food cake, ice cream and coffee. The next party will be at the home of Mrs. LeMaster on May 3.

Rufus grange met Thursday evening with Andy Engberg presiding at the business session. Quite a number of members were present and were amazed and pleased to see the finish on the grange hall floor which Carl Thompson had sanded, stained and waxed. Carl just finished the work the first of the week and did a beautiful job. It was the first time the members had seen it.

The quarterly report was read by the secretary, Mrs. Atlee Wilson. Eight applications for membership were also read by the secretary.

For the program, Mrs. Harland McDonald called upon the members to tell their experiences in gardening. There was a game in which husbands and their wives took part. Mrs. Wm. O'Brien won the prize for it. Andy Engberg read a letter from "the old country." Four of the newly initiated grange members were welcomed. They were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O'Brien, Lillian Bower and Gordon Bay. After the meeting the women of the grange served a nice supper.

Mrs. Richie Dingle came from The Dalles Monday to spend a few days with Mrs. Harold Engberg while her husband is in Heppner working at Curt Tom's place where they are plowing.

Mr. and Mrs. James Fox left Monday for Troutdale to spend a few days at their farm there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fox attended the wedding Saturday night in The Dalles of JoAnn Clodfelter and Bruce Eccles.

The Rufus high school boys went to Grass Valley Thursday where they had a practice game of baseball with the Moro lads. Moro seemed to be in better form and defeated Rufus. As the boys got home after the buses left, Coach Donal Brislain took them to their homes.

The high school students are working on their annual for this year. The students are also selling tickets to the spring dance on April 28 at the school gym, and posters are up advertising the event.

MORO 4-H CLUB HELPS TO FINANCE INTERNATIONAL FARM YOUTH PROJECT

Four-H Club boys and girls in the Moro community contributed to the International Farm Youth Exchange program, recently, by holding a pie sale at the Moro public school building.

The Campus 4-H Club of Oregon State college is sponsoring Oregon's participation in the International Farm Youth Exchange project. Sponsorship of this project includes selecting and sending a delegate to a foreign country for the summer months. One farm youth from Oregon will visit a European country where they will live and work with farm families for about 4 1/2 months. The purpose of the project is to provide American farm youth an opportunity to live with farm people of another country and to see something of their customs and culture. Through this program, it is hoped aid will be given in the development of junior farm leaders to better understand international relations and the problems of world peace.

Diane Christianson, local 4-H club girl, Moro, was in charge of the fund raising campaign.
