Moro School News

By Carol Kopp

Leroy Martin, Moro high school student body president, Mary Jo Miller, student body secretary, and Homer J. E. Townsend, principal, met at Wasco with the Rufus and Wasco high school committees Tuesday, October 2 to plan the activities calendar for the coming school year.

At a student body assembly October 3 in the high school gymnasium, plans for the annual school carnival, to be held October 27 in the Moro high school gymnasium, were discussed. Mrs. Keith McDonald, Wasco, extended an invitation to the students to attend social evenings (dancing, ping pong, refreshments, etc.) at Wasco on the Saturday nights that there are no school functions. Mr. Townsend announced that there will be no school October 8 and 9 because the teachers will be attending the Teachers convention in The Dalles.

By Roger Miller
Westminster fellowship will be held Sunday, October 7 at 5:30 p. m. with Bob Martin and Roger Miller leading the discussion. Dean Martin and Larry Sayrs will furnish the food.

Election of officers was held last Sunday with the following results: Larry Kaseberg, moderator; Joy Lane, vice moderator; Vivette Sparling, stated clerk; and Edwin Balsiger, treasurer.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to express our sincere thanks to the neighbors who rushed to our place upon hearing of fire in our barn. The fire was controlled quickly but we are appreciative of the neighborly intent of those who drove to our place.

Rufus News

Mrs. George Fox

Several people from the Rufus church attended a "Youth for Christ" service in The Dalles Saturday evening. The speaker was a Korean lady who has escaped the Communists, and fled with her husband to America. She told many interesting incidents concerning the American soldiers in Korea and also had color moving pictures of that country.

Revival meeting started in Rufus Tuesday evening with Rev. and Mrs. Carl Kruse officiating. Services start each evening at 7:45 and everyone is welcome.

The Parent-Teachers at Rufus met Monday night in the school house. Mrs. Charles Wilson, president, opened the business meeting.

A letter from Audrey Hanna, president of Wasco county council, inviting the local P-T-A to the "School of Instruction", which is to be held in The Dalles, October 18, was read. The secretary was instructed to send out cards each meeting to remind members of the date. The members decided to sponsor a Halloween party at the school house Wednesday evening, October 31. This is to be a party for all the children and their parents. Mrs. Allen Tom was appointed chairman and Mrs. Joe Morris and Mrs. William O'Brien are to help her.

The members will support the movies which will be shown at the school house. Mr. Brislain, principal of Rufus school, announced he has had some requests to have the shows the same as they were last year.

It was decided to serve a lunch at the schools fall dance which date will probably be in November. On that committee are Mrs. Ray Brown, Mrs. Bob Morris and Mrs. Curtis Neal.

Hostesses for the next meeting of P-T-A were appointed as follows: Mrs. Sarah Giannonatti, Mrs. Harvey Hansen and Mr. Gerald Parsons.

The Teachers Institute for this area will be October 8 and 9 in The Dalles.

At the close of the evening, Mrs. Archie Brand, Mrs. Luther Steward and Mrs. Wilson served a delicious lunch of sandwiches, cookies and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tate and family spent Sunday in The Dalles visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Worth Tate and also attended the dedication services of the new Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Brackett and children spent Sunday in the Dalles visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Langford. The Langfords had just returned from a two weeks vacation at the Oregon beaches.

Ronald Douglas went to Tacoma, Wn. for the week to attend to business which included several trips to the Tentist.

Mrs. Leo Dumlum and sons Wally and Denny of Salem visited relatives in Rufus over the week end. They took advantage of the two day holiday which was teachers institute at Salem.

The freshman class of Rufus are now full fledged members of the high school since they were initiated Friday night. Being initiated were Ronald Douglas, Dotty Steward, Neal Eaton, Lola Johnson and Marie Blake.

First the freshmen were blindfolded and taken for a ride. During the car ride, they visited a "ghost house" where a few tricks were played on them. Then they were taken back to school where they were served refreshments of watermelon, ice cream, cookies and cider. Everyone danced to records. Chaperones for the evening were Mrs. Kathryn Little, Gerald Parsons and Donal Brislain.

Some of the Rufus grange Home Economics women met at the grange hall Wednesday afternoon to work on the quilt the club is making for a money raising project. Mrs. Trace Fields who is chairman of the quilt making, donated a wool batt for it. Mrs. Fields also put new pieces of cloth on the quilt frame before beginning work. Those meeting at the hall besides Mrs. Fields were Mrs. Grace Medler, Mrs. Harland McDonald, Mrs. Andy Engberg, Mrs. William Huck and Mrs. George Fox. During the afternoon Mrs. Grace Medler served cookies and coffee.

Andy Engberg and Will Huck are working hard Sundays and some evenings to finish the cupboard and side boards in the grange kitchen before Booster night rolls around. Then, too, the state officers will hold a conference at Rufus October 11. This will be for all of Sherman county. The meeting will begin in the afternoon and a pot luck dinner will be held in the evening.

In 1925 the average automobile lasted only 6.5 years and ran about 26,000 miles in its lifetime. By 1948 the average scrapped automobile had run 120,000 miles and was 13.6 years old. Thus, today's car lasts twice as long and runs four times as far as did the car of the middle twenties.
