

Moro Personals

Thanksgiving day guests at the Tommy Jones' home were their children and grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Jones, Tommy, Rodney and Brian of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hood, Michael and Janice of Dufur, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bayer, David and Kim of this city and Mrs. Jones' father, Gus Reeder of Shaniko. All returned to their respective homes Thursday evening with the exception of the Bud Jones family, who remained for the week end visiting relatives and friends.

Little Kim Bayer, 14 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bayer had the misfortune of mashing off the end of a finger when he became entangled with the telephone stand which also supported a heavy potted plant, at the home of his grandparents Thursday. His parents rushed him to a hospital in The Dalles where three stitches were taken to replace the severed end. It will be about three weeks before it is known whether or not the finger will mend together. Earlier the same day David, the 3-year old brother of Kim received a bruised thumb when it was caught in the wringer of a washing machine his dad was working on.

Mr. and Mrs. John Parker spent Sunday through Tuesday in Portland combining pleasure and business celebrating their 30th wedding anniversary and seeing what Santa had for good little boys and girls.

Paul Cyphers entered a hospital in The Dalles Monday and was operated on Tuesday morning. Harry Kunsman is caring for the Tavern in his absence.

Attending the Oregon-OSC football game Saturday in Eugene were Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McKean, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Conlee, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Collis Moore and son David, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Pinkerton and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Raymond, and Mr. and Mrs. Giles French.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Barnum and sons and E. E. Barnum returned from Portland Monday where they had been for several days. Mrs. E. E. Barnum is in St. Vincent's hospital there recovering from an operation.

"Here, There & Everywhere" On December 6th, the Moro Woman's club meets and will entertain as guests members of the Grass Valley and Wasco clubs. Mrs. John Parker will be director.

Rufus News

Mrs. George Fox

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Evans of Portland, and her aunt Mrs. Mattie Tallman of Wishram, Wn., visited at the T. L. Fields home last Sunday. Mrs. Evans is a cousin of Mr. Fields.

Baptismal services were held in the United Brethren church in The Dalles Sunday afternoon with Rev. Ardian Roberts assisting Rev. Robert Hompel, The Dalles pastor. Several people from Rufus attended.

The Rufus Women's Foreign Mission society met Wednesday afternoon for a work period on clothes to send to the Indian Mission.

John Mathieson had the misfortune of falling from a scaffold and injuring his hips and has been confined to his bed.

Basil Bains and three friends of Portland spent the week end at the T. L. Fields' hunting geese; however, as there were no geese in evidence, the hunt was unsuccessful.

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Brackett and children were dinner guests on Thanksgiving at the home of Mrs. Brackett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Langford of The Dalles.

Miss Mary Brackett, who teaches at Banks, spent her Thanks giving vacation-visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Brackett.

Mr. and Mrs. James Tate and family had dinner Thanksgiving in The Dalles at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Worth Tate.

Mr. and Mrs. George Blackburne were hosts Thanksgiving to their children, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Blackburne of Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. Don Robison of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hydorn were guests Thursday of Mrs. Hydorn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mathieson. Their son Johnnie Hydorn is in the hospital suffering with pneumonia.

Everett Darr of Government Camp visited Monday at the Geo. Fox residence. He came especially to try his luck goose hunting. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dumler and sons Wally and Denny, spent their Thanksgiving vacation with relatives here. While here Mr. Dumler laid the linoleum in Leland Medler's new home. All were guests on Thanksgiving day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macnab.

The upper grade school children of Rufus honored Wally Morris with a party at one school house Tuesday afternoon. Wally just recently returned from an operation performed at the Shriners hospital in Portland. Refreshments of cookies, cake, cider, juice and ice cream were served.

A light sprinkle of snow fell in the valley Sunday morning. Later in the day, it rained and continued to rain all night.

The geese are plentiful and there are lots of hunters out hoping to bag some. From some of the reports they aren't getting too many. The geese are really getting wised up.

ABOUT THE COUNTY

There will be divine worship at the Grass Valley Methodist church next Sunday afternoon, December 2, at three o'clock. Rev. Gravenor.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Axell celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary Sunday when their children all came to help them. Alton and family were over from Yakima, Bill and wife from McMinnville, Emma and family from The Dalles and Bob and family from here. Fred Krusow came up for the day also.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Smith of Riverside, Wn., spent the week end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Ruggles.
