Mrs. George Fox

Last Wednesday, Joel Neal and Michael O'Brien, Rufus cub scouts, attended the pack meeting with their parents. Every one was interested in the many puppets displayed. Mrs. Curtis Neal received her assistant den mother's pin. Michael O'Brien received his lion badge, gold arrow, a silver arrow, Webbed's badge, and was graduated to the boy scouts. The project for December is the making of Christmas tree ornaments.

The boy scouts of troop 352 met at the Rufus school last Thursday with their leader, William O'Brien and assistant Dick Smith. Donal Brislain also assisted. The boys named their patrol the Eagle Patrol. Election of officers was held with Neal Eaton chosen as patrol leader and Wally Morris as scribe.

Archie Brand who has been staying in Portland is much better now, and is home with his family.

A. A. Ryan of The Dalles was a dinner guest Sunday at the George Fox residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Harland McDonald had dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Jordan. After dinner all of them drove out to visit with the George Fox family.

Over the week end, it was nice, we've already had quite a bit of rain the past week, the rain seems to come so quickly and leaves just as quickly. However, the ground is real wet for a while.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Engberg for Thanksgiving and the week end were Mrs. Engberg's mother, Mrs. Susie Mason; a granddaughter, Carol Pace; a niece, Joanne Mason, all of Spokane. Mrs. Olive Bache and Mrs. Al Olson and son Craig of Astoria, were also dinner guests. Mrs. Bache is Mrs. Engberg's sister. Mr. and Mrs. Basil Mason and children Eddie and Karen of Spokane were Sunday guests at the Engberg home.

The Rufus P-TA met for its regular meeting Monday at the school house. Mrs. Charles Wilson, president, opened the business meeting. The members voted to turn over the receipts of the lunch served at the Rufus school dance to the high school student body. It was announced the school will have its Christmas play December 20.
