"Tiny" Benson is staying home this week with a case of strep throat.

The new machine shed being erected on the flat for the McKean company is going up rapidly under the hand of a crew from Portland who are experienced at erecting pre-fabricated buildings. Framework is about completed and the metal siding and roof will soon be on and the shed ready to house equipment.

Miss Diane Christianson is home from Lewis & Clark college to spend her holiday vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Christianson.

Miss Evelyn Kirkelie is home from Eastern Oregon College of Education at LaGrande for the holidays with her parents, Mr.

and Mrs. Ivan Kirkelie. Operations have started toward construction of a radio booster station on Gordon Butte, probably on Albert Kaseberg land near the top of that hill. Information is that it will be merely for the purpose of aiding headquarters to the east, particularly McNary at present. It will strengthen and direct radio communication between the two points according to a story recently published about it. When completed no one will occupy it, operation being automatic. Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars met Monday night at the hall here and tried to devour two 20 pound turkeys with only moderate success. There was enough for another feed later.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Flatt left this week for California where they expect to spend the colder part of the winter. M. and Mrs. Albert Kaseberg left last week for Modesto, California to spend the winter. Norris Rasmussen was taken to a hospital in The Dalles Wednesday morning by ambulance by Norman Fields and he will remain there until it is determined whether or not he was hurt by two men who were with him Tuesday night. Stan Coelsch came home from the hospital last week and says he feels fine again after his bout with typhoid. Ronnie May is home from Lewis & Clark college in Portland for Christmas vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul May.

Employees of The First National Bank were in The Dalles Tuesday evening for the annual party and dinner of First National bankers in this section. W. H. Edwards took his wife to a hospital in The Dalles Tuesday in an effort to find aid for her physical condition. Mrs. Clarence Sparling gave a dinner Wednesday night in honor of her mother's 75th birthday anniversary. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Justesen, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Christianson, Mr. and Mrs. Bon Christianson, Mr. and Mrs. Sparling and the honor guest, Mrs. Daisy Byers.
