

Grass Valley

(By Mrs. A. F. Balzer)

A candle light service held at the Baptist church Sunday evening by the Junior girls organization called "The King's Daughters", presented the Christmas story in song and reading. A special number, a vocal duet by Rev. A. L. Kintner and Don Earl, with Mrs. Orville Ruggles at the piano was followed by a short meditation on Christmas.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Balzer received a letter from their son, T-Sgt. Melvin Balzer that he was discharged from the Air Force at Hamilton Field, Calif., December 8 where he had been stationed since being called back to the service in March.

Mrs. Art Bibby returned home Thursday from Portland where she spent several weeks for medical attention and visiting her daughter, Janice.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Balzer and children, Carcel and Annette, and her mother, Mrs. Lotus Kenney, of Portland arrived Friday night and spent the week end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Balzer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rust had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. R. E. LeBleu and family of Terrebonne and her son, Sgt. Lynn Sims, who recently returned home from Germany, where he spent six years with the army.

Mrs. John Block returned home Wednesday from The Dalles where she spent several days for medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Eakin of The Dalles spent Sunday visiting at the home of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eakin.

Members of the Grass Valley Women's club gave a party at the Masonic hall Thursday afternoon. Each member invited three women as their guests. The afternoon was spent playing pinochle and visiting. Refreshments of sandwiches and coffee were served later in the afternoon.

Mrs. C. J. Kulick and children left Monday from The Dalles on the streamliner for Gary, Indiana, to join her husband who is attending college.
