The small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mulick is ill at the home of her uncle, Dr. John Skirving in The Dalles but is reported to be improving.

The ground was covered with snow Thursday morning, not much but a warning that winter has not completely loosened its hold on this part of the earth. Most of it melted by noon, even though more fell in the forenoon. Temperatures have been slightly below freezing at nights and warm and sunny in the daytime weather. A chill wind has kept winter in the minds of the lightly clothed, however.

The Junior Ladies Club of the Moro Community church is making plans for the annual Silver Tea to be held March 7 in the church parlors from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock. The tea this year is to be an antique tea. Anyone having antiques they would like to have displayed before the community on this afternoon please get in touch with Mrs. Rosco Moore. Mrs. T. Leland Brown of The Dalles will be here to speak on antiques and show some of her collection.

Tommy Thompson, county agent, and Ralph Busse BMA agent, were in Gearhart the first of this week to attend the convention of PMA men of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Collis Moore and son David returned last Thursday evening from Ocean Lake where they had been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Conlee for several weeks, all doing some fishing in the nearby rivers. Mr. and Mrs. Conlee returned to Sherman county also.

David Moore left Monday for The Dalles where he joined a group of young men from Hood River and Wasco counties and departed for a hitch in the service.

Norman Fields was in Kelso Lincoln's birthday to attend a meeting of the Columbia Peace Officers association. He returned Wednesday.

for a basketball game with the Rufus Wolves. At the second quarter, Wishram had 19 points and Rufus 26. At the end of the 3rd quarter, Rufus had 38, and Wishram 20. Rufus beat with a score of 55 to 31. Wishram made some good plays. Those making points for Rufus were Stewart 19, Blackburn 10, Blake 9, Brand 6, Douglas 6, Fox 5, and Gayle Eaton 3.

Before the boys game Wamie Lumber had a game of basketball with the Rufus town team which was composed of players in the surrounding area. The men made Wamie Lumber work for their points. It was a real good game throughout. However, Wamie Lumber beat by a score of 62 to 45.

Biglow canyon is washed out in three places. Some of the roads need work done on them before they can be gotten over, but on the whole the roads are in better shape this winter than other winters. On some of the summer fallow slopes there was some run off ditches left, when the snow melted. But with the amount of snow on hand and the frost in the ground the damage wasn't too bad.
