Rufus News

Mrs. George Fox

Mrs. Bally and Mrs. Thompson who work with the Home Extension unit of The Dalles, gave a textile painting demonstration in Rufus Thursday afternoon. A dessert luncheon preceded the meeting. Potatoes on silver platters with sprigs of green, green candles in crystal holders and shamrocks in the ice cream carried out the St. Patrick's motif. Shamrocks were also used for decorations about the room. Angel food cake and the ice cream and coffee were all served on crystal trays to the 45 women present.

Daffodils and pussy willows were used about the room. Mrs. Roland Johnson and Mrs. Sam Brock were hostesses for the day.

Mrs. Johnson, chairman, opened the business meeting asking each member to tell an Irish joke for roll call. Mrs. Allen Tom, Mrs. Fred Dormaier and Mrs. W. T. Little, new members of the Rufus grange were present. A number of the Harlandview club members were present.

The date of March 23 is set for a work day at the grange hall. Mrs. Joe Morris will take the club at her house for the April meeting. Mrs. Robert Byrd will be co-hostess. The members secret pals will be revealed at the April meeting, and new names drawn. The women are to bring a gift for the one who has been given to them. The chairman turned in $30 from the bake sale which was held recently.

The Rufus High and Home Ec girls came to see the textile demonstration.

Miss Eleanor Fox was honored with a bridal shower at the grange hall Friday afternoon. Mrs. William Huck and Mrs. Harland McDonald were hostesses for the occasion.

Mrs. V. M. Foote, Mrs. Elizabeth Colvin and daughter Patricia of Nephi, Utah, were special guests for the occasion. The gifts were arranged around a centerpiece of flowers encircled by a gold band on a long lace covered table.

For the program Mrs. McDonald and the guests each took part in a reading. There was a quiz game which Mrs. Roland Johnson received the winners prize. Miss Vivian Trounce, a former music teacher of Eleanor Fox, favored with a piano solo. Mrs. Harry Adams gayly dressed as a gypsy, even to long ear-rings, told Eleanor's fortune, bride elect and the guests.

The honor guest was presented with a corsage, "more useful than beautiful" made by Mrs. Grace Medler. Eleanor was assisted in opening her gifts by her sister, Mrs. Earl Weatherford. Then the gifts were passed around for each to see.

Wedding bell ice cream, decorated cup cakes with a handle to make a basket, and centered on the handle was a wedding ring tied with white ribbon, was served with coffee on crystal trays at the end of the party. Will Huck took pictures of the Fox and brothers George Jr. and Jimmy, Dr. Foote and his mother Mrs. V. M. Foote, a sister Mrs. Elizabeth Colvin and daughter, Patricia of Nephi, Utah. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Weatherford of Arlington, Mrs. Ralph Weekly of Coquille, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Affolter of Salem, James Klaun of Madras, William Smith, Charles Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie Cowan and son Kenneth, Miss Gwen Cahill, and Miss Susan Steed, all of Corvallis.

Present were Miss Fox and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Clodfelter attended Eleanor Fox's shower. Mrs. V. M. Foote, Mrs. Elizabeth Colvin and daughter Patricia of Nephi, Utah arrived in Rufus Friday. They came via train and were in time to attend the Eleanor Fox bridal shower at the grange hall that afternoon. After seeing Dr. and Mrs. Foote leave for their honeymoon Sunday evening, they caught the streamliner for home.

Mrs. Melvin L. Stinson of Coos Bay and Mrs. Jack Davis of Portland are spending a few days at the George Fox home. They plan to leave Wednesday afternoon.

How to make good telephone service even better...
a time-saving tip...
look up numbers you're not sure of before you call
Have you ever had the feeling you're not quite positive of a familiar telephone number you're about to call? Your memory tells you it's 1338... or is it 3138? If you'll take just a moment to look up the number in the telephone book—put it down—then call, you'll be sure of the right number. You won't have to make the call a second time... and you'll avoid the embarrassment of calling the wrong number and having a stranger answer.
this free booklet for the local and out-of-town numbers you call most often, is yours for the asking. Just telephone, send a card or drop in to your nearest Pacific Telephone business office.
