

Moro Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Busse had as Sunday evening dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Rusty Moreland and daughters of Fossil.

Mr. Francis Keyes, music instructor in the Moro high school, is giving a musical recital May 2 by all his pupils at the Moro Community church at 8:00 p. m. Refreshments will be served after the recital.

The American Legion auxiliary elected Yvonne Kirkelle as their representative to Girls State to be held at Salem in the Capitol building from June 4 to 14. Vivette Sparling was elected as alternate. Dorothy Brown has been elected from the auxiliary at Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul May had as their guest last week his cousin, Mrs. Ray Borger of Portland.

Mrs. Clarence Sparling honored Mrs. Gordon Fraser Friday afternoon when a group of friends were invited in for bridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mitchell of Fairview visited over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Busse.

Mrs. Anna Mason of Detroit, Michigan, is here visiting her aunt, Mrs. John Foss and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beshee and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Belshee left Wednesday for Portland to spend the rest of the week visiting and to take in the Shrine circus.

Thelma Dimmick of Kennewick, Wn., and Zora Morgan of Portland, took their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Morgan to the home of Mrs. Dimmick for a weeks visit last week. This week Mrs. Zora Morgan is spending the time with her sister, Mrs. Lloyd Johnson and family. Miss Morgan, a nurse, is convalescing from a recent operation.

Giles French, candidate for the Republican nomination for congress, was home a part of the week end after a trip to the southern part of the far flung second district and expressed himself as much encouraged with the acceptance of his campaign. Legislators who have served with him at Salem are almost all for his election, he reports. He left again Monday morning for Ontario by way of John Day and Prairie City for a two week trip.

Wasco News Items

LAWRENCE KIRBY HONORED

A service pin representing 14 years of service with Pacific Power & Light company was presented to Lawrence Kirby, Moro lineman-agent, last Friday evening at The Dalles Civic auditorium in a dinner-dance meeting of employees of the power company from The Dalles and Hood River areas.

The affair, attended by more than 120 people, was the last of a series held throughout the Pacific service area honoring the company's 1276 employees and their wives and husbands. Total service for the entire group represents 13,027 years.

The newly elected officers for year 1952-53 are Mrs. T. Lester Johnson, president; Mrs. Robert Bish, vice-president; Mrs. Lyndon Haven, secretary; Mrs. Lola Foster, treasurer.

Program for the afternoon: "Impressions from Hawaii" given by Mrs. Alice Anderson. Mrs. Estrella Hailey and Mrs. Charles Fulton, all having visited in the islands this past winter.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Hugh White and Mrs. Fulton.

WASCO SCOUTS HOLD TEA

Girl Scout Troop No. 1, Wasco, held its annual Silver Tea and Apron sale April 21. Many friends and visitors attended.

The girls put on the tea this year, furnishing the program, refreshments and part of the aprons.

Program consisted of group singing by the troop members, piano selection by Phyllis Watkins, Jeannette Belshee, Carmen Royce, Betty Haven; a demonstration of baton twirling by Lily Vaughn; a tap dance by Sally Fields and a number on the accordion by Janice McIntyre.

The refreshment committee members were Shifley Kellogg, chairman, Jeannette Belshee and Peggy Austen.

Taylor lodge No. 99, A.F. and A. M. loaned the Masonic hall to the girls for their use for the occasion.

Georgia Schmidt joined the Waves and left recently by plane from Portland to her training station in Maryland.

Charles Bullard was taken to the hospital Monday. Latest reports are that he is expected home the latter part of the week. The Junior Ladies of the Moro church held a brunch party

Thursday morning at the home of Mrs. Max Barzee. Funeral services would be held in that city Friday.

Mrs. W. E. Allison died Wednesday. Light Bulbs, Barney's G. V.

STUDY CLUB MEETS

The Wasco Women's Study club held its annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Fulton, Friday, April 18th.

Roll call for the afternoon was a favorite flower. During the business meeting the 21 members present discussed possible changes in the constitution, elected new officers and made plans for the Portland reception to be given jointly with the Tuesday club in honor of Mrs. Hildred Zell, state president of the Oregon Federated Women's clubs.

The Justesen family of Kent recently gave to the auxiliary some side rails for their hospital bed.

A card from Mrs. Elva Bryant relates that after four months in southern California she is back home in Shedd, Oregon and very glad to be there.

Francis Keyes has been called into service again and has to report for duty in the navy May 22. His family wish to remain in Moro if a house can be found.
