Mr. and Mrs. John DeSantos and daughter Kathleen of Seattle, Wn., were Saturday night guests of the Bill Hucks. They had dinner at the grange hall Saturday where they met many of Mrs. De Santos' old friends. Mrs. De Santos is the former Betty Bryant who attended Rufus school for many years.

The Oregon State college bacteriology department will discontinue sale of legume innoculating bacteria June 30, 1952. Growers can now rely on any of the commercial innoculants offered by dealers and we recommend that they be used. Innoculation of legume crops is always desirable and in many cases is essential for maximum yields. The Oregon State college bacteriology department will continue to maintain stock to culture the legume bacteria and where feasible will obtain isolated seed and offer for sale cultures for new and exotic introductions where such cultures are not available through commercial sources.

The outbreaks of anthrax in Ohio, Michigan and Illinois have been traced to unsterilized bone meal from Belgium. Only sterilized bone meal should be used for livestock feeding. This outbreak also emphasizes the need for viligance in detecting and reporting livestock diseases.

The U. S. population is increasing about 7,400 persons daily. This is two and a half million per year. This will require six million more cows to meet the milk requirements for an increase production of 1,323 pounds of milk per cow for those now in production. This is another reason why the dairy business looks good for a few years.

The threat of Foot and Mouth disease is pressing. In Canada thirteen hundred head of cattle have been detroyed. USDA officials have tracked down three thousand head of cattle that have come into the United States from Canada. There are now two bills before congress requesting that a laboratory be set up to study Foot and Mouth disease and develop a satisfactory preventive vaccine.

From Washington State college comes a report on some research that has been carried on over a ten year period having to do with dryland grazing trials. Rainfall is much greater in the Pullman area but the information is of interest to all. Grass-legume mixtures produced nearly three times as many pounds per acre as straight grass pastures. Cattle may be successfully self fed grain on pasture. From the standpoint of both cattle and pasture management it is recommended that grain feeding be started just before the peak pasture growth following which th animal should be placed on full feed as soon as practical.

NAVAL AND MILITARY VACANCIES ANNOUNCED

Congressman Lowell Stockman of the Second District of Oregon will have vacancies at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, New York, and the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis, Maryland, for admission in July 1, 1953.

Applicants for these vacancies must be residents of the Second District of Oregon, and the Congressman will have competitive examinations conducted by the Civil Service Commission on Monday, July 14, 1952, to aid in the selection of nominees for both academies.

All boys who are interested and qualified should write immediately by air mail to Congressman Lowell Stockman, House Office Building, Washington, D. C., so they may receive additional information and be admitted to the examination.

Candidates for the academies must have reached their 17th but not their 22nd birthday by July 1, of the calendar year (1953) in which they enter the academies.

INTOXICANTS CAUSE OF LICENSE SUSPENSIONS

Drinking drivers set a 1952 record during April. Two-hundred and sixty-one had driving licenses suspended after court convictions of driving while under the influence of intoxicants, Secretary of State Earl T. Newbry said Friday. The figure was a high so far this year.

License suspensions were also handed out to 47 drivers convicted of reckless driving, 20 for failure to report an accident and eight for violation of the basic rule.

Other reasons for license suspension included violation for license provisions, narcotics addiction, failure to appear for tests, failure to pass tests, negligent driving, physical condition, medical report and driving record.

VETERANS TO GET MONEY

Oregon bonus checks totaling some $27,170,000 will be paid to more than 65,000 World War veterans or their next of kin during the month of July, Bonus Supervisor H. C. Saalfeld of the state Department of Veterans' Affairs has estimated.

That was the ampunt and number of bonus claims which the veterans' department figures will be approved by July 1. Veterans are not being notified that their claims have been approved. Only those veterans whose applications are disapproved will be informed. Less than 400 letters of disallowal have been issued so far.

Next of kin of Oregon men who died in service are entitled to the maximum payment of $600. If a veteran died since his discharge, the eligible survivor is entitled to the amount the veteran would have been paid had he lived.

To date slightly more than 80,000 veterans have applied for the bonus, but the department estimates that another 60,000 or so still may file before the December 1 deadline.
