Moro Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Belshoe left last Friday for Eugene to meet her brothers and wives with whom they went to Astoria to attend the fishing derby. Carroll Noonan went to St. Helens to visit, and see about getting his old job back in the mill there. Mrs. Grace Wallan returned home with Mrs. Edith Burnet last week after they had made a trip to Yellowstone. She is visiting here a few days before returning to her home at Garfield Washington, going by way of Walla Walla to visit friends. Howard Ross is going to the state fair and taking a steer and a couple of sheep as exhibits of his daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Wily Knighten received an announcement that Gordon A. Kunkle was married to Miss Marion June Rittman August 16 in Minnesota. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fraser and daughters left Saturday for Halfway to visit her parents for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. John Searcy were in the county Monday to look over their property here. They live in Hillsboro and were accompanied from The Dalles by W. H. Ragsdale who is recovering from a recent illness. Mr. and Mrs. Truman Strong were in Redmond Sunday morning to eat some of those 4000 steaks served at the cowboy breakfast prior to the Deschutes county fair. Mrs. Bob Axtell has some dishes which contained donated food and which she would gladly return if she knew the owners. The Wednesday night story hour program sponsored by the Moro Library association ended this week because of the beginning of school. An average of 19 children attended and listened to stories told or read by Mrs. Robert Marvin, Mrs. Paul Cyphers, Mrs. Kenneth McKean, Mrs. Grace Zevely, Mrs. Harry Pinkerton. It is expected that the story hour will be repeated next summer. About 170 farmers have obtained wheat loans on approximately a million bushels of wheat so far, although the number is less than in 1951. Wendell Balsiger and Edwin went to Astoria last Thursday and went out beyond the bar catching 14 salmon among the party of four. Mr. and Mrs. Haakon Questad and family of Seattle visited here last week end with his sister, Mrs. Ivan Kirkelle and family. Mrs. Harry Pinkerton has been named chairman of the mental health division for the State Federation of Woman's clubs for the years 1952 to 1954. Arzell Lemley received a phone call Saturday from Mrs. Lemley from Rochester, Minn., that she is to undergo an operation this week and will be in the hospital ten days at the Mayo clinic. The Coons and Coelch string of race horses were taken to the state fair at Salem this week for the races there.
