

Moro Personals

Mrs. Orville Hockman, Mrs. Eugene Amidon and Mrs. Harry Pinkerton attended an all day meeting of representatives from the Woman's clubs of the 4th district at Boardman last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Matchell spent the week end at Hillsboro with Mr. and Mrs. John Searcy.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Thompson returned from Portland Friday after being there most of the week to attend a meeting of the Presbytery.

Thanksgiving bids fair to be the usual family gathering day about the county with no public functions billed and with everybody happy except the turkey.

Marle Hoskinson, county clerk, Naomi Van Gilder, county treasurer and all members of the county court were in Portland last week to attend meetings of the state organizations of their positions. Assessors met in September and sheriffs and attorneys will meet in December.

A party of friends surprised Arthur and Glady's Bucholtz Monday night at their home the occasion being their 25th wedding anniversary. Dinner and games made the evening memorable.

Alfred Solomon and wife, arrived last week to take over the pastorate of the Moro Community church. He spoke at the Sunday morning service.

Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Don Thompson, in The Dalles, Thursday, November 20, a son.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Douma spent the week end in Prineville visiting relatives.

JOLLY STITCHERS MEET

The meeting was called to order by President Penny Higley. Secretary Ronda Fraser read the minutes of the last meeting. Then we had a song and yel led by song leader Sharon Be she and helper Margaret Brown. We also gave our 4-H pledge. The first year girls started on their headscarfs. The refreshments were brought by Miss Steenkolk.

Wasco News

The Wasco Woman's Study club held its annual "Family Night" at the Methodist church when a delicious turkey dinner was served by the Girl Scouts to about 120 members and guests. After the dinner Mrs. T. Lester Johnson club president led allegiance to the flag followed by singing of America. She then introduced Mrs. Mar ion Weatherford, state president of Oregon Federated clubs; Mr. Weatherford, vice chairman of the Oregon Wheat commission; Mrs. Hildred Zell, chairman of the Gerontology division and past president of the Federation of Women's clubs; Leonard Fields, chairman of Youth Activities of the Oregon Wheat League. Each responded with a few words.

The leader for the evening was Mrs. Hugh White, dept. chairman of Conservation for Oregon Federated Women's club. She praised the soil conservation winners of Sherman county, namely: J. J. Decker 1952; the Rich-Jerfer Ranch 1951; Kenneth Blau 1950 Walter Bruckert 1948-49.

Also introduced were Sally Fields who had grand champion 4-H steer at the P. I. in 1951 and Larry Kaseberg grand champion 4-H steer at the Fat Stock show in The Dalles sponsored by the Oregon Wheat League. Then Mrs. White introduced the speaker of the evening, Floyd Root, president of the Oregon Wheat League, who gave a very interesting talk on soil conservation.

Tom Fraser sang two numbers accompanied by Mrs. Carroll Sayrs.

The tables were very attractively decorated with flowers made from wheat. All honored guests were presented with corsages made of wheat for the ladies and boutonnières for the men.

The steady trend in U. S. defense bond sales in Oregon continued through October, as series E defense bond purchases equalled last year's sales.

Giles French, county chairman, reported state-wide sales of $2,119,949 in series E bonds and county sales of $431,000. Total state-wide defense bond purchases in all series amounted to $2,358,867.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Melzer and son have gone to Dayton for the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Melzer.

Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Brock and family had Sunday dinner in The Dalles with Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ruzic.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Merritt drove to Arlington Sunday morning for dinner and to attend some business.

Misses Jean and Shirley McIntyre of Portland visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Afton McIntyre, this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dunn from Rock Creek are moving into the Morrison house.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Reid left Thursday for Portland where the men attended plumbing school.

The date of the WSCS bazaar and dinner has been changed to December 12 from Dec. 13.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Van Gaasbeck and children Betty and Gary of Blalock spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Vleda Van Gaasbeck.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Engberg left Monday for Spokane to spend the holiday week with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Thomas of Glenwood, Wn. spent Sunday with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Thomas and family.

The next regular Legion auxiliary meeting will be December 1 at 2 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ira Fridley. Members are asked to bring or send Christmas child welfare gifts and also the civil defense registration cards from the November Legionette magazine.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Neville and family are expected by the G. A. Sargents for the Thanksgiving holiday.

Recent guests of Mrs. Lee Dehler were Mrs. Bill Alsup and family and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gunnells and daughter of Moro. Mr. Dehler and Mr. Alsup have been elk hunting in the Ochoco.

Miss Glenna Wallace spent the weekend with her brother in law and sister Mr. and Mrs. Charles Decker in The Dalles.

Weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Merritt were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hatfield, G. W. Terry, Albert Terry and Robert Terry all of Battle Ground, Wn. Leo Roberts of Grass Valley and Barbara Buck.

Rufus News

(By Mrs. George L. Fox)

Rufus grange met in regular session Thursday night with Roland Johnson, master in the chair.

The high light of the evening was the Rufus grange officers putting on the third and fourth degrees for the large class of candidates. Mrs. Roland Johnson made and gave a carnation corsage to the women and a carnation flower to each of the men in the degree team. Atlee Wilson was degree captain. The candidates from Harlandview grange were Mr. and Mrs. David Pink, and from Rufus were Mr. and Mrs. Pat Magnab, Mr. and Mrs. Al Dornaler, Mr. and Mrs. George Macnab, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Harness, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Drinkard, Mr. and Mrs. Art Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrison.

Mrs. Charles Wilson at the piano played the marches and for the singing. Those singing were Mrs. Walt Morris, Mrs. Charles Burnet, Mrs. Walt Bruckert and Mrs. Clarence Higley. William Huck, insurance agent, explained the grange insurance to the new members.

Charles Burnet, pomona master, announced there will be a fifth degree on Sunday November 23 at 2:30 p. m. at the Rufus grange hall. The degree will then be put on November 29 in the evening after the afternoon business meeting takes place of the Pomona grange.

Mrs. Roland Johnson, county deputy, announced the Sherman county granges will have their installation of officers at Harlandview, December 14. A 1:00 o'clock potluck dinner will precede the meeting.

For the lecturer's program, Mrs. Wm. O'Brien had all sing, "Welcome To You". At the final count there were fourteen present from Harlandview and forty-three from Rufus. Supper was served after the work was finished.

Roland Johnson, master, and some of the Rufus grange members have worked all week at the grange hall grounds to change the septic tank and sewer system. Mrs. Johnson and some of the other women prepared dinner for the men. Afterwards, they worked on the quilts which they are making.

Mrs. Dewey Thomas was hostess at her pinocle club Tuesday night. Mrs. Pat Macnab won high score, and Mrs. Frank Reid received consolation prize. Refreshments were served late in the evening. Guests of the club were Mrs. Ira Fridley and Mrs. Earl Fields.

Rufus school held "Open House" Tuesday, November 18. Due to colds and absence of some of the pupils, the primary room had the parents visit the room in the afternoon. The upper grades and the high school had their part in the evening.

The program began with "Pledge to the Flag" by the Rufus Boy Scouts after they had advanced the colors. The audience sang "America". Donal Brislain, principal of Rufus school talked on "Children in Today's World". Norman Austin gave the recitation "I Am the Present and the Future". William O'Brien, president of tin with Norman the winner. The American Legion auxiliary will meet December 1 at the home of Mrs. Ira Fridley. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Steve O'Meara and Mrs. David Rich-elderfer. Members are to remember to bring a Christmas gift for child welfare.

PRIZE WINNER . . . The Nobel prize in medicine for 1953 was awarded to Dr. Selman Waksman of Rutgers University in recognition of his work as co-discoverer of streptomycin in the field of microbiology.

Members of the Rufus grange went to Pine Grove grange near Hood River Tuesday evening. As no special grange was to put on the work there (they aren't participating in the Visitation program of the three counties) the officers were chosen from those present. Roland Johnson was chosen as master and Mr. and Mrs. Atlee Wilson were chosen assistant and lady assistant stewards. The former people are from Rufus grange. Seems to be getting cold in these parts. The thermometer got down to 20 degrees above zero Friday night. Before that the fog hung heavily here for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. George Fox visited at the Frank Weatherford place Friday. In the afternoon, Mrs. Fox attended a show given by Mrs. Purdee Marvel in honor of Mrs. Earl Weatherford who lives near Olex.

Mr. and Mrs. Norvel Williams and son Charles of Oregon City came Friday to spend the week end visiting the George Foxes. Norvel is a brother of Mrs. Fox.

Those from this area doing jury duty in Moro Wednesday and Thursday were James Tate, Art Watkins, Elton Medler and Mrs. George Fox.

The Rufus PTA gave a talk on "Children in the Home". Geo. Fox Jr. gave the recitation, "A Tribute to the Teacher". Mrs. Sarah Giannonatti, talked on "Children in the School". The girls chorus closed the program singing "I Love a Little Cottage".

Mrs. Kathryn Little doing English I and III. Mrs. Gerald Parsons doing geography and general science. Donal Brislain doing geometry and biology. Richard Smith having the upper grades doing their work and shop.

The high school played the Rufus matrons a volley ball game with the girls winning 14 to 6. Ray Brown was the referee.

A Smoker in the gym followed the program. First was David Tom vs Douglas Reid with Douglas the winner. Next was Timmy O'Brien vs Jerry Austin with Timmy the winner. Mike O'Brien vs. Norman Aus-

Smith Callaway CHAPEL

Funeral Advisors and directors

LEONARD R. SMITH
Phone The Dalles 3133

FINANCE NEEDED FARM IMPROVEMENTS NOW!

LAND BANK FARM LOANS 4%

WHY PAY MORE?

The Dalles NATIONAL FARM LOAN ASS'N

The Dalles, Oregon

Owned by Farmers for Farmers

LAND BANK LOANS

"The Farmers' Choice Since 1917"

Give magazine subscriptions for Christmas and all of 1953

Do your Christmas shopping the easy, economical way. Take advantage of special, money-saving Christmas gift rates—and let us take care of all the time-consuming ordering details.

1ST GIFT $6.00
EACH ADDITIONAL GIFT $4.50

1ST GIFT $6.75 2ND GIFT $5.00
EACH ADDITIONAL GIFT $4.50

Phone or mail your order today—for gifts of all magazines—to:

SHERMAN COUNTY JOURNAL

The EASY-DOES-IT CORNER

CATHERINE ANDERSEN KEITH McDONALD

Make Easy-Carry Drain Pan From 5-Gallon Can

We've heard about a lot of makeshift drain pans—many of them troublesome. But here's one (below) you can make that can be pulled from under a vehicle by the handle, then carried with one hand.

5-GALLON CAN
CUT OUT SECTION AND BEND OVER EDGES
CRANKCASE DRAININGS

If you want to do away with engine troubles on your truck or tractor, try RPM DELO Heavy Duty Lubricating Oil. It will save you up to 60% on engine maintenance costs.

A Standard Oil Company of California Product

Distributed by
Catherine Anderson Keith McDonald

Grass Valley, Oregon Phone: Grass Valley, 232
Wasco, Oregon Phone: Wasco 552

Beefo's Beefo's

There are, says the philosopher, many reasons for drinking and any one is enough. One of said reasons, surely, is fellowship, the friendliness of just getting together, and that we see most often.

BEEFO'S

At the CAPITAL CITY, Moro, Oregon

Beefo's Beefo's

On Display at Pratt Motor Co., Wasco

Plymouth's New Belvedere Hardtop for 1953

A new concept of automobile design in the low-priced field co-ordinates superb styling with advanced engineering developments in Plymouth's line of 1953 models. Here is the dashing Belvedere Hardtop. Interior tailoring and appointments blend harmoniously with its two-tone exterior colors. Even the steering wheel is color co-ordinated. Powered by the lively and dependable Plymouth engine with its increased rating of 100 horsepower and 7.1 to 1 compression ratio, the Belvedere is one of nine body styles offered in the 1953 line. Wire wheels shown are optional at extra cost.

BLITZ WEINHARD FOR ME!

OREGON'S OWN FINE BEER SINCE 1856

BLITZ WEINHARD COMPANY
PORTLAND, OREGON