Rufus News

(By Mrs. George L. Fox)

The Frank E. Brown unit of the American Legion auxiliary met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ira Fridley with Mrs. David Richelderfer and Mrs. Steve O'Meara as co-hostesses. Mrs. Robert Bish, president opened the meeting. Mrs. Dewey Thomas, secretary-treasurer read the minutes and reported on the units financial status. Mrs. Bish said a letter from Mrs. Edith Zolezzo, the auxiliary's hospital chairman at the Veterans hospital in Portland, invited the Wasco unit to visit their Christmas gift shop December 7 from 2 to 5 p. m. The unit voted to give the Wasco Legion members the $200 towards their building fund to be used in fixing up their club room. Mrs. Bish said she has the hospital bed at her home. The mattress hasn't arrived as yet. This bed is for anyone needing it that lives here in the county. As soon as the Legion club room is completed the bed will be stored at the hall. The president stated she has put out jars in public places to collect funds for the "Gifts to the Yanks Who Gave". These jars will be left out until January first. Their proceeds will buy articles for next years

Christmas, as the funds are collected too late for this year. It is last years fund which are supplying the gifts for this season. Mrs. Dewey Thomas reported $30.81, the sum of the money collected the past year for cigarettes for the Veterans hospital, was sent into state headquarters. Mrs. Bish asked the members and their friends to save discarded silk and nylon hose and bring them at the next meeting in January. The hose will be sent to the Roseburg hospital. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Earl Richelderfer showed a book on making paper flowers. The unit will try to make some for decorations. Refreshments were served by the hostesses.

November 21, following the movie, the high school students had a leap year dance in the school basement. Cokes were served throughout the evening and music was furnished by a record player. The girls invited the boys and asked for dances.

After a hard football season, the Rufus Wolves began their daily workouts in the school gym. Although losing two of their players from last year, Buzz Brand and Jack Steward, they believe they have good reason to plan on a successful basketball season this year. This is the first time in quite a few years that Rufus has had thirteen boys turning out for basketball. Another reason is that, in addition to the three freshmen, two new pupils have moved in.

Ping Pong has captured the interest of Rufus high school students with a hotly contested tournament in progress. The upper grades are making paddles during shop period to replace the worn out paddles. George Fox Jr. last year's champion and runner-up Ronald Douglas have so far been holding their own in rugged competition.
