es at the grange hall Tuesday afternoon for a shower honoring Mrs. Harry Adams.

Jerry Brackett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Brackett has been ill for two weeks with the mumps, and he will be in for another week. Jerry had the mumps on both sides. He is a freshman at Rufus high. His little sister, Joan, was thought to have symptoms of taking the mumps over the week end. So far, the Bracketts are the only ones reported in the area to have the mumps. The doctor told them the exposure period is from 12 to 21 days. Mrs. Brackett said the first symptoms in Jerry was a swelling in the mouth which acted like an infected tooth. When Jerry first was sick he was taken to a dentist who X-rayed his teeth for trouble. But after finding no tooth trouble a doctor diagnosed it as mumps, so Jerry went home to bed.

Mike of Portland came home with Mrs. Frank LeMas and son the Bill Macnabs Monday and remained as their guests during the week. She went back to Portland Friday. The Macnabs report their daughter Kay is improving quite rapidly from her recent attack of polio and after she becomes used to using a brace on her leg expects to be home.
