Rufus News

(By Mrs. George L. Fox)

Mrs. Harland McDonald reported the auditing committee on the grange secretary and treasurer's books, found the books in good order.

Twenty-two Rufus grangers motored to Ramsey Park grange which is near Dufur Saturday night. This was the first visitation of the granges since December 18. Among those going were the Curtis Neals, Eugene Eatons, Andy Engbergs, George Foxes, Atlee Wilsons, Mrs. Joe Drinkard, Sam Brocks, Roland Johnsons, Mrs. Grace Medler, Mrs. Ben Galloway, Mrs. Sarah Giannonatti, Mrs. Ritchie Dingle and Mrs. Mary Wilson, Rufus members who now live in The Dalles.

A month ago we reported the baby lambs were arriving. Now, we can report baby calves are seen playing beside their mothers out in the pasture. Also the heel flies are seen sending the cattle flying (literally) over the hills. As one stockman said, "Spring is here because you can't fool the heel flies."

No new cases of mumps have been reported at Rufus this past week. Measles have been going strong amongst the primary room pupils. Last week, Douglas Medler and Ryan Johnson were the latest ones known to have the disease.

Mrs. Xythe Rice of Palouse, Nampa, Idaho where she visited ett. Mrs. Rice just returned from Wh., spent the weekend in Rufus her daughter and son in law, Mr. visiting Mr. and Mrs. Fay Brack and Mrs. Rod Newman.
