HANDY GIRLS MEET

By Nina Belshee

The Handy Girls Sewing club met last Monday night after school. Some of the girls are still working on their clothes protectors. Most of us are working on aprons and skirts.

We had our regular business meeting. Some of the girls have quit so we had to have a new secretary. Sherrie Fraser was elected secretary and Nina Belshee was elected news reporter.

BUSY BAKERS MEET

By Kay McKay

The Busy Bakers club met at the Bekkadahl home February 7. Bread making was discussed again and many of the girls have tried their skill. Two of the mothers demonstrated how to make bread in one of our previous meetings.

A dancing party was planned, and committees were appointed. No date has been set.

When winter weather threatens mountain telephone lines, Jim Carson and his fellow linemen roll out to make sure calls go through.

Jim Carson—Telephone Trouble Shooter

The story of how telephone men see that your calls go through in any weather

"Jim Carson" could be any one of the thousands of telephone trouble shooters on the job in the West. And he's mighty busy when blizzards strike in the mountains. When the electronic testing equipment spots possible trouble on telephone lines, Jim and a telephone crew are dispatched to stop the trouble before it can interrupt service. Often while a storm is still raging, they are on the job—clearing lines—helping to make sure your telephone calls go through quickly, reliably.

Radio telephone keeps Jim, and his fellow linemen in touch with their home telephone base. If necessary, they may call upon emergency telephone equipment which is stock-piled at strategic locations up and down the West. After the storm, Jim and his crew may patrol lines for potential trouble spots—leaning poles, broken branches, wires buried in towering snowdrifts. It's constant checking like this that keeps your service dependable. And, of course, keeping your service reliable in any weather is just one more way we make sure your telephone service remains the finest in the world.
