

Moro Personals

The choir of the Evangelical United Brethren church of The Dalles will present its Easter Cantata this Sunday evening at the Moro Community Presbyterian church. The people of the community are invited to this 7:30 service, after which members of the Mariners club will be hosts and hostesses at a fellowship hour. Director of the visiting choir is Dr. John Gilhouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Collis Moore returned Tuesday afternoon from Portland where they had spent the week end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marion McKee.

There will be a clinic for pre-school children Friday, April 24. Dr. Smith will be in charge. For further information call Moro 786.

Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Crawford left Monday after spending a month in Moro as publishers of the Sherman County Journal, the regular publishers of which returned from California that day.

Mrs. Roy Belshee is home again after some weeks in The Dalles hospital and her sister, Mrs. Lula Bingham of Eugene is here to help her.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Barnum and sons spent Sunday in the Bend area visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sammie Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Barnum and families.

Harlandview Grange will put on the 1st and 2nd degree work for candidates Saturday, April 18, at their hall.

Mr. and Mrs. John DeMoss write that they will be through Sherman county this week as they are moving from the south to Hansville, Wash., where they will spend a part of the summer.

Edward E. Ohl is the new Knapp shoe salesman on this territory having replaced the late Carl Fuller. He has been a salesman here for other products previously.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jaeger stopped in town Tuesday morning while on their way home from Klamath Falls where they had attended the Angus show and sale.

They are having a reduction sale for their own herd next Wednesday at Walla Walla, Washington, soon.

The Moro Boosters club is sponsoring the annual clean-up day to be held Wednesday, May 5. Committees will be appointed soon.
