BEEFO'S

BEEFO'S

Next Wednesday is Clean-up Day in Moro and no doubt all the big, husky, strong, public spirited, civic minded citizens will be out with spade and paint brush to make the town look like it was ready for a coronation.

And we expect that by two o'clock the remains of that valiant crew will be in here resting up and telling how much work they did. And we hope they—and we hope they are.
