DEMOS SCENE OF HISTORICAL MEETING

The complete program for the annual meeting of the Sherman County Historical society at DeMoss Springs, Sunday, June 7, will be ready next week says Theodore Johnston, who with Mrs. Johnston is making up the program.

Usual features will be incorporated including a bountiful basket lunch, reports of committees, a plentiful display of old time pictures.

Speaker this year will be Senator Eugene E. Marsh of McMinnville, president of the senate and second citizen of Oregon. Former eastern Oregonian with resident at Metolus when that was a thriving town, he was speaker at the pioneer meeting at Prineville last year.

home Monday. Harlandview grange in regular session Saturday evening. Delegates were elected to State Grange. Insurance delegate is to be Walter Bruckert. It was reported that Mrs. Clarence Higley is improving at the hospital and Mrs. Louis Sather is home now from the hospital where she received medical treatment.

The Bonneville Power administration has a great deal of equipment stored at Kent with which the Parker-Schram company will construct the McNary-Maupin line through Sherman county. Kent was used as a center because sufficient storage space could not be obtained in towns closer to the line. Steel is coming in for the towers and a good deal of wire is already here.

Virgil Lee Everett, 28, Kent, was held over by Justice R. O. Scott for the circuit judge after being arrested by Sheriff Norman Fields and charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Try it for a cheerful evening! You'll find it's... "Cheerful as its Name"

BEEFO'S

We're going to have our own coronation right here in Sherman county. You won't have to cross the ocean to see it although it may seem like it if it doesn't quit raining. There'll be a lot of people at the fairgrounds Sunday to find out who the queen is going to be, who can rope the quickest steer and ride the best race. And a lot of them will come here afterwards. Won't you?
